VOLUME 7. JANESVILLE, WIS., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1864. NUMBER 292.

Janesville Weekly Gazette.

TERMS PER YEAR, . . . $2,00.
IN ADVANCE.

This edition of the GAZETTE is one of the largest weekly papers in the State. Having the matter published in the Daily to cull from in making it up, we are enabled to furnish a paper of surpassing excellence. We shall give in each number a correct review of the markets, and make the paper a complete reflex of County, State and general news.

THE NEWS.

The Herald's special correspondent says Mr. Lincoln intends to issue a proclamation of Universal emancipation on the 22d inst, It is an appropriate day for such a deed, and we sincerely hope the correspondent is not mistaken. Another correspondent of the same paper gives some of the plans of a contemplated rebel raid into Ohio. The account looks very improbable.

If Congress ever arrives at any definite action upon the whisky question other than a personal use of the article, we should be glad to record the fact. At present the matter is very much "mixed."

The news from Mobile, though not of a definite character, is interesting.

We give a further account of the escape of our prisoners from Richmond.

The occurence of extensive fires at various points, ought to serve as an extra caution to every body to be on the look out during this cold weather, for such calamities at home.

THE WOOD QUESTION AGAIN.—We are informed that the reason the Chicago & N. W. Railway Co., have not furnished the poor of Janesville with wood during the present winter is because they have been unable to procure the same. It has been almost impossible since the heavy fall of snow January 1st, to draw wood enough to supply the engines of the Co. This Co. is willing to do what they can to relieve the poor of our City.

In this connection we would say that wood choppers are much needed along the line of the C. & N. W. Railway, particularly from Jefferson north, and that a reasonable number of men can find immediate employment at good wages. Here is a good chance for those out of work.

THE SPLIT still continues between the different wings of the Free State party in New Orleans. It amounts virtually to a contest between the friends of Messrs. Hahn and Flanders, as to which party shall have the honor of inducting their candidate into the Gubernatorial chair. Fifty-one out of the eighty-seven delegates, who met in State Convention on the 1st, were friends of Mr. Hahn. The other thirty-six preferred Mr. Flanders.

Finding themselves unable to carry their point, the latter seceded from the Convention, and met at another place. The result was the nomination of both Messrs. Hahn and Flanders upon nearly the same platform of principles. The question is one of men, and not of measures. An opinion is entertained that the friends of Mr. Flanders will withdraw their candidate before the election.

ON THE second Tuesday in March the legal voters of New York will meet in their several election districts to vote for or against the proposed Constitutional Amendment and authorizing the Legislature to pass such a law or laws as may be necessary to secure the Right of Suffrage to such citizens of that State as may be absent in the Miliary Service of their country at any election held hereafter.

AARON A. HALL, recently with the Connecticut Cavalry at Baltimore was arrested at Wallingford, Conn., on the 12th inst., by Major Marcy of the Connecticut Cavalry, charged with circulating counterfeit national bills and currency. A considerable amount of counterfeit bills was found on him. It is thought his arrest will lead to important disclosures and arrest of other parties.

THE accounts between New York and the War Department are still unsettled. New York claims that she had 12,850 surplus on her quotas to June 11, 1863, while the department only admits 4,051.

THE New York Tribune characterises as "surplus energy" the movements in favor of Mr. Lincoln's re-nomination. It must be admitted, however, that the "surplus" is a large one.

John Morgan's Address.

John Morgan has issued the following address to his thieves, from Decatur, Georgia:

SOLDIERS, I am once more among you, after a long and painful imprisonment.

I am anxious to be in the field. I therefore call on all the soldiers of my command to assemble at once at the rendezvous which has been established at this place.

The country needs your services, the field of operation is wide, and the future glorious if we only deserve it.

Remember how many of your brave companions are still pining in the felon's cell. They call loudly on you for help. They expect it of you. Will you disappoint them?

Come at once, and come cheerfully, for I want no man in my command who has to be sent to his duty by a provost Marshal.

The work before us will be arduous, and will require brave hearts and willing hands. Let no man falter or delay, for no time is to be lost.

Every man must bring his horse and gun who can. Those who cannot, will have them furnished.

—A gentleman was surprised, during the late frosty weather, to see his little daughter bring home from the Sunday School library a grave treatise on "Backsliding." "My child," said he, "this is too old for you; you can't make anything of it." "I know it, papa," was the artless reply, "but I thought I could when I took it. I thought it would teach me how to slide backwards."

—Brigham Young is in no hurry to have the mines in Utah worked. He says: "When it is necessary that we should possess gold in great abundance the Lord will show it to us in vision, and we shall not have to prospect and dig to find it as the wicked have to do."

LOCAL MATTERS.

ARRIVAL OF THE 13TH REG'T!

Reception by the Citizens of Rock Co.

Welcoming Speech by the Mayor!

THE DINNER ETC., ETC., ETC.

The event so long expected and eagerly looked for by the citizens of Rock County—the arrival home of the 13th Regiment—transpired to-day. Arrangements had been made by the people to give these gallant men a cordial reception, and most effectually was the design carried out. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the people were early astir this morning, and the immediate preparations for the occasion were commenced with spirit and energy.

The ladies to whom had been entrusted the setting and arrangement of the tables at Hyatt House Hall, performed their duties most admirably, and such accommodations were made for seating the entire regiment of 438 men.

The generosity of the people was fully up to the emergencies of the occasion, and in great abundance of the choicest provisions were supplied, with which the tables were loaded down, and there were still large quantities left in the Commissary's department.

Between one and two o'clock a procession, headed by a band, and composed of the officers of the City Government, the Artillery, the several Fire Companies and citizens generally, formed at the corner of Court and Main streets under the Marshalship of Col. McKey and his assistants, Capt. Miltimore and G. Carter Esq., and took up its line of march for the depot, where, upon arriving, it was drawn up in line to await the coming of the train.

At about half past two the train arrived and the men debarked amid the booming of cannon and the cheers and congratulations of the immense crowd which had assembled at the depot. The men being drawn up in line, were welcomed home by Mayor Trent, on behalf of the citizens, in the following happy speech:

Officers and Soldiers of the 13th Wis. Vol.

In behalf of the citizens of Janesville, Rock county, and vicinity, we welcome your return from the excitements, dangers, and arduous duties of the field of strife, as patriots who more than two years ago, voluntarily left us for the camp and field, to engage in a warfare to uphold the government bequeathed to us by the Fathers. You nobly stepped forth at the call of your country to maintain the flag of the Union of States, that we may hand down to posterity unsullied and untarnished the constitution and laws of a free and independent people. We welcome you as compatriots of the grand army of the Union, from the young and loyal State of Wisconsin, acting in concert with the many thousands of loyal hearts from the great North West, the Middle and New England States. We greet you as citizens of our common country, as the uncompromising friends of national integrity, liberty, and human progress.

You return to us after an absence of more than two years, re-enlisted as veterans, to greet your wives, parents, brothers, sisters, and friends, before entering upon a new campaign, which, we indulge a fervent and hopeful prayer, will end this civil war, which in its causlessness and atrocity is unparalleled in the annals of history. A war in which the "tempest's breath, and battle's rage" have for the past three years swept over the land.

You marched forward with no other inducement save that of true patriotism, the love of the country of your birth, or the land of your adoption; determined to fight on until the rebellion is subdued, and its instigators are buried so deep that they shall know no resurrection morn, and until the constitution shall be respected and enforced, in every State, and the old flag triumphantly wave once more over a united, happy, and independent people.

We congratulate you then not only as citizens and patriots, but as soldiers, who have formed a cordon of bristling steel between us and the traitorous hosts, protecting our homes from invasion, and securing our families and our property from all the horrors and devastation of unrelenting warfare.

You deserve homage at our hands, and this reception and ovation, and these words of mine, but feebly express the emotions and sentiments of the hundreds assembled here to-day to welcome your home. While it has been your duty to meet and subdue armed traitors on the ensanguined field, it should be a consolation to you, and all of us, that those who remained at home, have by the ballot sustained your noble endeavors, and blasted the hopes of peace traitors in our midst, and thereby given aid to and nerved the hearts and strengthened the arms of those composing the army of our nation. Soldiers, we have by our zeal and patriotism, filled up your ranks, thinned by disease and battle, and come what will, we shall continue to sustain you until the "the last armed foe expires."

If there be any one here to-day to witness this ovation so lost to all love of country, of justice, and of human rights, as not to breathe a fervent prayer for each and all of you, and the noble cause in which you are engaged, may his arms be palsied and his tongue cleave to the roof of his mouth. If there be such an one, (which God forbid,) let him be banished, and never more know that he has a country and a home.

It is not my province to recount the dreary marches you have endured, and the dangers you have undergone in camp and field, and the sufferings you have experienced, but I may be permitted to say, that no orders of your commanding general have been disobeyed, and that wherever duty called, prompted by true courage and devoted patriotism, no sacrifice has been too great for you to make. And history will record it, that you stand forth to-day loyal, brave, and deserving men, champions of the rights of mankind in sustaining the Nation's life; that you have brave hearts and willing hands, writing on the dial-plate of Time "in letters of living light, that noble sentiment of other days and other times, 'UNIVERSAL LIBERTY AND EMANCIPATION.'" That such will be the final result of the great battle now in progress, and that its consummation is not far distant no one can doubt who looks into the historic page of the past, or down the vista of the future. For the Government, the Army and the People are working together in unison and cannot fail to accomplish the task which traitors have imposed upon them. The Administration in power and the brave boys in blue have been sustained by the people at home. We have grown stronger day by day in men and means. The fiery passions of men have been assuaged by the political victories won. And we are once more united in the determination to fight on regardless of party until the rebellion is subdued. Treason is becoming dumb everywhere, and traitors are being destroyed by the havoc of war, and we have fully made up our minds to use all the means which the God of nature has placed in our power to subjugate and even extorminate if necessary, the leaders of the rebellion, to maintain the flag of our country, and preserve the union of the proud galaxy of States which united make us a nation.

For these reasons, and in consideration of all the circumstances attending the rise and progress of the great rebellion, I deem it requires no prophetic pen to truthfully record this day, that the danger and doubt as to the successful termination of the present contest, are rapidly giving place in the minds of all loyal men, to the cheering and grateful feeling that the end is drawing nigh, and that the glorious sunlight of civil and religious liberty and human progress will soon appear, dispelling the poisonous dews exhaled amid the long night of gloom that has enshrouded us; that the proud ship of State has passed the breakers on the rock bound coast of disunion, anarchy, and despotism, and now in an open but turbulent sea is gliding safely and surely to port; that before many months the victory for the life of the nation will have been won; that our wounds will be soothed and healed, and the victors and vanquished will rejoice together; that an age of power, wealth, greatness, glory and union will greet the angel of peace folding her wings over the Nation purified and refined by the ordeal of fratricidal strife; redeemed and regenerated, advancing to that lofty position designed by the Fathers, and finally fulfilling its mission among the nations of the earth, and remaining down to the latest period of time.

Once again, then, in behalf of your friends assembled here, and those at home who wait with open arms to receive you, I bid you a generous, cordial welcome. But soldiers, in looking around us, we miss from your ranks many a familiar face—you have not all returned. You left some on duty on the tented field, some in hospital, but many others, alas! you have laid quietly away beneath the turf of the valleys and plains of the southwest, of which the vacant chairs at the home firesides give painful evidence. In all our land, in the streets, in our churches, and in the social circle, the habiliments of mourning, and the widow's and orphan's tears, prove the melancholy fact that death has bereft the soldier's relatives. They are gone, but they have not died in vain. We shall fondly cherish their memory. They belong to the immortal dead, whose memory and deeds their country and their friends will ever honor. They will never more respond to your roll call, but from the realms above, we firmly believe that they, cognizant of human transpirations, will send spirit words of cheer to you and all of us. Their virtues and noble sacrifices are recommended to our imitation and emulation by the radiance emenating from the tomb. Their sacred and noble heroism shall rear for them monumentum perrenius aeri.

The welcoming address concluded, the procession took up its line of march.

Cheers and waving of handkerchiefs as they passed along the street testified to these returned veterans the pleasure felt by the people of Rock county at seeing them again.

After the men had had an opportunity to see their friends for a short time they were ushered in to partake of the dinner which had been provided.

[The exercises at the table were so late that we were compelled to defer an account of them until to-morrow.]

In another place we have given the roster of the Regiment as it was when it left the State. Below we give it as it now is:

Colonel—Wm. P. Lyon.
Major—Thomas O. Bigney.
Quartermaster—Platt Eycleshimer.
Surgeon—John M. Evans.

The regiment numbers 420 veterans and has 250 men who are not eligible, not having served two years. Most of these latter have declared their intention to re-enter the service should the government offer them the opportunity. The men are looking hearty and well, and seem to be in the best of spirits.

NOTICE TO GAS CONSUMERS.—I regret to say to the citizens of Janesville that in consequence of the breakage of a pipe in the Gas Holder, the Gas company will be unable to furnish gas for this evening.

JAS. HENDLEY, Supt.

WELCOME TO THE "THIRTEENTH."

AT HOME ON FURLOUGH, FEBRUARY 18th, 1864

W. P. LYON, COLONEL COMMANDING.

We've waited, watched and waited long,
And now we're glad to see
Your dear, familiar faces, boys,
Brave sons of liberty.

CHORUS.
Our Lyon hearted veterans
From War's red field are come!
Brave boys we give you hearty cheer,
We proudly hail you home.

You've borne our banner nobly, boys,
You've done your duties well—
And of your patriotic deeds
Shall future annals tell.
Our Lyon-hearted veterans, &c.

And when the war is over, boys,
Rebellion crushed for aye,
Then to your homes you'll come again,
And come next time to stay.
Our Lyon-hearted veterans, &c.

Treason subdued, and peace restored,
Justice and freedom won,
We'll shout a cordial welcome, boys,
As here to-day we've done.

Our Lyon-hearted veterans
From War's red field are come!
Brave boys, we give you hearty cheer,
We proudly hail you home!

The Thirteenth.

As matter appropriate to the occasion, we publish below an extract from the report of the Adjutant General for 1862, which gives something of a history of the 13th Regiment, up to the time the report was made:

The Thirteenth was organized at Camp Tredway, near Janesville, under the superintendence of Col. Maurice Maloney a Captain in the regular army, and was mustered into the United States service on the 17th of October, 1861. They remained in camp until the 18th of January, 1862, when they left the State under orders to report to Major Gen. Hunter, at Leavenworth, Kansas. On the 20th they crossed the Mississippi on the ice at Quincy, Illinois, marched to Palmyra, Mo., and took the railroad for Weston, Missouri, where they arrived next day. Two days after they crossed the Missouri on the ice, and marched to Leavenworth City, Kansas. On the 7th of February they began the long March for Fort Scott, en route for Fort Smith, Arkansas, to form part of Gen. Jim. Lane's "Grand South-Western Expedition, halting on the way from the 12th to the 17th, at a point on the Marie des Lignes river, two and a half miles from Ossawatomie Village, Kansas, crossing the river on the 17th, and marching by way of Fort Lincoln, and they reached Fort Scott on the 21st, and encamped, having marched one hundred and sixty miles from Leavenworth City.

They remained at Fort Scott until the 26th of March, when they were ordered to Lawrence, Kansas, en route for New Mexico. Here they arrived on the 31st, having marched one hundred and fifteen miles. On the 21st of April, they took up the line of march for New Mexico, and having accomplished the distance of one hundred and five miles in seven days, they arrived at Fort Riley on the 28th. At this point the "Great Expedition" was abandoned, and on the 19th of May, they were ordered to return to Leavenworth, en route for Corinth Miss. Another march of one hundered and twenty-five miles, and they again arrived at Leavenworth on the 28th. Here they took part in a grand review, to which Wisconsin contributed the Eighth Battery, Twelfth and Thirteenth Infantry and Third Cavalry. Next day they embarked on steamer, at Leavenworth, and proceeding down the Missouri river, arrived at Columbus, Kentucky, on the 3d of June. Three days after they marched to Moscow, Ky., distant eighteen miles, and were stationed along the Mobile and Ohio railroad, from Columbus, Ky., to Corinth, Miss. They were thus engaged, guarding the railroad at different points until the 30th, when the regiment returned to Columbus. While stationed at this post, company D. Capt. Blake commanding, was, on the 20th of August, detached to Hickman, Ky., and after an absence of twelve months, rejoined the regiment at Fort Donelson, on the 21st of August, 1863. On the 19th, company G, under command of Major Bigney, was detached to Smithland, Ky., and rejoined the regiment at Fort Henry, Tenn., on the 12th of November.

On the 25th of August, a part of the regiment left Columbus by steamer and disembarked at Fort Henry, Tenn.; they were followed by the remainder, except companies D, and G, on the 31st. The regiment marched to Fort Donelson, distant twelve miles, on the 2d of September, where they assumed the duties of garrison of that important post. On the 5th they marched with an expedition, under command of Colonel W. W. Lowe, of Iowa, against Clarksville, Tennessee, at which place a force of rebels were stationed. They discovered the enemy in ambush, on the 7th, about nine hundred strong, near Ricket's Hill. After a short skirmish, the rebels were utterly routed, leaving their killed and wounded in our hands. A large number of small arms, horses and mules were captured, together with about forty thousand dollars worth of army stores. The expedition, having marched about seventy miles, returned on the 8th, to Fort Donelson.

During the remainder of this and the succeeding months, the regiment was engaged principally in scouting expeditions through the surrounding country, watching the movements of guerrillas and irregular troops, and preventing the aggregation of any considerable body of the rebel force. On the last of October, they embarked on steamers, and proceeded to Shoditz Landing, on the Tennessee, where they joined the other troops, under command of Gen. T. E. G. Ransom. They marched to and forded the Cumberland river, and thence proceeded to Hopkinsville to attack the rebel General Morgan. They arrived at this place on the 4th of November, but no enemy could be found. Two days after, on the evening of the 6th, they came up with the rebels, commanded by Woodward, near Garretsburg. After a short but severe and decisive skirmish, the enemy escaped under cover of the darkness, leaving forty-six killed and wounded on the field. Our forces captured fourteen horses and a large number of horses, saddles, shot guns and equipments. Our loss was trifling. On the 7th they returned to Hopkinsville. On the 11th they had arrived at Fort Donelson and next day returned to Fort Henry, where they again assumed garrison duty, having marched a distance of one hundred and sixty five miles.

From the 21st of December to the end of the year, they were engaged in the pursuit of the rebel commander Forrest, whose force they followed through Western Tennessee, driving him towards Corinth, near which place his command was defeated and dispersed by Gen. Sullivan, with the loss of a number of prisoners and most of his artillery. In this expedition they marched one hundred and twenty miles, and returned to Fort Henry on the 1st of January, 1863. During the month they were employed on the river between Fort Henry and Hamburg Landing, Tennessee, in guarding steamers laden with stores and supplies.

On the 3d of February, at four in the afternoon, information was received that Fort Donelson was attacked, and that a severe fight was going on. In half an hour the regiment was on the road, marching to reinforce the Eighty-Third Illinois, at that important point. After driving the enemy's skirmishers five miles, they arrived in the vicinity of the Fort, at ten in the evening, with a loss of one man wounded on the march. Meanwhile, the garrison, assisted by the gunboats, had repulsed the enemy with severe loss, and gained a glorious victory. They were stationed at Fort Donelson on the 3d of March, thus holding the extreme right and front of the "Army of the Cumberland." During the spring and summer, companies and detachments from the regiment were constantly engaged in scouting and scouring the surrounding country, taking many prisoners, and preventing the formation of any considerable force of guerrillas, or other irregular troops. This duty, perhaps the most difficult and irksome the soldier is called upon to discharge, was performed to the entire satisfaction of their superior officers.

Participating in the forward movement of the "Army of the Cumberland," they left Fort Donelson on the 27th of August, and marching by way of Columbia, Tennessee, arrived at Stevenson, Alabama, a distance of two hundred and sixty miles, on the 14th of September. Col. William P. Lyon was placed in command of the post, and the whole body of troops there stationed.

The Thirteenth has never been engaged in a general engagement, but from their first experience of the hardships of a soldier's life, in the endless—and apparently aimless—marches on the western frontier down to their latest record, they have uniformly performed their whole duty, as ordered by superior officers. The record of men, occupying such positions as they have been called upon to sustain, presents little to dazzle the imagination; but the tireless vigilance which relaxes not, day after day and week after week, although lacking the excitement which accompanies the movement of armies, cannot fail to command our admiration and respect for the Thirteenth Regiment Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry.

CELEBRATION OF WASHINGTON'S BIRTH DAY.—The only public demonstration in this city looking to the celebration of Washington's birth day—the 22d inst—is a festival by Washington Engine Co., No. 3. From what we can gather of the entertainment, it promises to be one of the finest affairs of the season. The committee of arrangements are thorough young men, and will leave nothing undone to make the occasion a pleasant one.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—One of our most respected and best known citizens, disappeared mysterously last Tuesday afternoon. Circumstances indicate a matrimonial affair, but as to this we cannot state positively, though we think it probable that a pair of bright eyes and ruby lips may have led one of our quietest citizens astray from the comforts of his bachelor home. "Have you seen Sam?"

EXTENSIVE RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS.—The Chicago and Northwestern Railway Co., have decided to build a general car repairing shop at this place. The plans are completed and the work will be commenced early in the spring. The building will be two hundred feet long by forty five in width. This is a much needed improvement, and its necessity will secure an early completion of the building.

The stone arch way which this Company is building over Clarion street, Monterey, is evidence of the fact that they are determined that all their improvements shall be lasting. It is large and capable of accommodating the large amount of travel which is constantly passing through it.

We hear of other improvements in the shape of buildings &c., which we shall publish in detail at some future time.

NOTICE.—Mr. Wade Hampton—a colored man, for several years a local preacher in the South—will preach in the M. E. Church in this city next Sabath, at 4½ o'clock P. M.

All people of color in the City, especially, and others who may please to do so, are kindly invited to be present on the occasion.

MARRIED.

At the Myers House, by Rev. R. B. Curtis, Feb. 17th inst., Mr. JOHN D HOLMES and Miss ELLEN M. CRINNELL, both of the town of Turtle.

Also, at the same time and place, Mr. LYMAN E. SWEET and Miss CORNELIA A. HOLMES, of the same place.

At Chicago, on the 17th inst., by Rev. J M Humphrey, SAMUEL H. CULVER, of this city, to Miss DELIA N. HANLEY, of Chicago.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Turtle, Wis., Feb. 17th, 1864, by Rev. W. H. Burnard, Mr. LEVI B RAYMOND and Miss MARY O. LEVERICH, all of Turtle.

MACHINE OIL of the very best quality, can be had at the sign of the Golden Mortar, Main street. au27dtf C. B. COLWELL.

FROM WESTERN VIRGINIA.

HEADQUARTERS DEP'T. WESTERN VIRGINIA, Feb. 17.

A correspondent of the Herald at Gallipolis, Ohio, informs me that he has had an interview with Mr. Wyhart, a fugitive and escaped conscript from near Jefferson, N. C., who gives him important information, as follows:

About three weeks ago over thirty long, narrow and open boxes, corked, tarred and made pointed at one end, were sent to Wythville, in Wyth Co., Western Va. These boxes were styled pontoons. Officers had arrived and sent out men to collect strong, light wagons and good horses from farmers of the neighborhood. It was whispered among military men that there would soon be a raid made into Ohio, and that the pontoons referred to would be drawn overland to either the Neuse or Kanawha river, and worked and floated down the Ohio, and that some would be crossed at two points, one column going by way of Barbarsville and Guyandotte. It was rumored and expected that troops would arrive for concentration from both the Eastern and Western rebel armies. In regard to the above report, I can only say that rumors have been in circulation for some time past of mysterious movements on the line of the Virginia & Tennessee railroad.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Herald's Special.—It is understood that on the 22d of Feb. Mr. Lincoln will issue a proclamation of universal emancipation, including the border States.

It is probable a conference will agree upon some plan similar to that of the Senate in regard to the tax on whisky.

Times' Special.—The committee on the conduct of the war will soon examine into the causes of the inactivity of the iron clad fleet off Charleston.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Tribune's Special.—Brigadier General Mitchell was today relieved as President of general Court Martial and ordered West. The Court is thus reduced to less than a minimum, and therefore dissolved.

World's Special.—It is understood that every member of the Senate Judiciary Committee believe the House resolution forfeiting the property of rebels beyond the life estate, to be unconstitutional.—The Committee have reported against its passage.

It was stated at the War Department and Provost Marshal's office that it will be next to impossible to carry out and execute the new enrollment bill in the coming draft.

The gold bill of the Ways and Means Committee will be extensively debated.

The House Military Committee to-day discussed the question of changing the Provost Marshal's office and to make the head of that department a Brigadier. It will probably be adopted. The object is to get rid of Col. Fry.

The Conference Committee on the Conscription Act met to-day. The House Committee insisted on $300 as the commutation fee, and the Senate urged $400 and that to apply as exemption for one draft.

The Ways and Means Committee hope to report before next week the amended tax bill on tobacco, petrolium, &c. It is hardly thought any additional tax will be placed on manufactures in the new bill.

FROM THE SOUTH.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 18.—A fire at Charleston, Va., on the 16th, destroyed Shields' dry goods store and Inman's House. Loss $25,000. Small insurance.

The Gazette's Chattanooga dispatch says information from the rebel army is contradictory. Some declare Johnston's entire force is around Dalton, others that large portions, including artillery at Kingston, have gone to reinforce Longstreet. John Morgan is said to be in the vicinity of Dalton with considerable cavalry force preparing for a raid. General Watts of Alabama telegraphed to the citizens of Selma, to prepare to receive noncombatants from Mobile, as that place will be soon attacked by the federals.

The steamer Denegh was lost recently in attempting to run the blockade from Mobile.

Mobile papers think Sherman's plan is to penetrate to central Alabama, compelling the evacuation of Mobile. No indication in news report that Gen. Grant is preparing for active operations.

FIRE AT GALENA.

GALENA, Feb. 17—The double brick residences on Washington street, owned by Messrs. Seate & Wirtenberger, was entirely consumed by fire this afternoon. Part of the furniture was saved in a damaged condition. Mercury marked 20 degrees below zero this morning.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

GREAT FIRE IN GLOUCESTER AND PHILADELPHIA!

An Arsenal on Rock Island!

AMOUNT OF GOLD IN THE TREASURY!

FROM MADISON.

Special Dispatch to the Janesville Gazette.

MADISON, Feb. 18, 1864.

The State Firemen's Association held here last night and to-day was very largely attended, and everything is passing off satisfactorily. The next Tournament will be held in Fond du Lac, August 25th and 26th, and it will be the largest gathering of firemen ever had in the west.

J. C. S.

FROM GLOUCESTER, MASS.

GLOUCESTER, Mass.—Feb. 18.—About one-half of this place was destroyed by fire this morning.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 18.—A fire on Front street below Lombard this morning consumed eight dwellings occupied by poor people. Weather intensely cold.

The large woolen mill of James Lee, on Mill Creek, Montgomery county, was entirely destroyed by fire last night.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—HOUSE.—A bill passed providing for the Government obtaining from the owners of Rock Island, Ill., a place to erect an arsenal. The House proceeded to the consideration of the plan to sell the surplus gold in the Treasury. Hooker stated that the amount of gold on hand Saturday last was nearly $19,000,000, and estimates show there will be on the 1st of July about $37,000,000. The requirements for gold from now until the 1st of July to make payments of interest of the public debt will be less than twenty-four millions, showing an excess of about $12,000,000, which may be sold.

THE ESBAPE FROM LIBBY.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 17.—The escaped Union officers reached here this morning, and go to Washington this afternoon. The account of their escape is full of thrilling interest, but for prudential reasons many particulars are withheld from publication at present.

They were forty-one days making a tunnel. Having managed to find access to the cellar, they commenced work, relieving one another as opportunity offered. Their instruments were case knives, pocket knives, chisels and files. Twice they had to abandon their work and commence anew, on account of obstructions which they could not pass. They had hoped to avail themselves of a culvert, but found it impracticable after getting through the wall. They disposed of the excavated soil by drawing it out in a spittoon, which they attached to a cord. This would be filled by the party at work in the tunnel, and pulled out into the cellar by their companions, who disposed of it by spreading it in shallow layers of the floor, concealing it beneath the straw. The work was necessarily very slow. So close was the atmosphere in the tunnel that they could remain in it but a few minutes at a time, and their candles would go out. At one time they got so near the head of the street that a small hole, about the size of a stove pipe broke through, but fortunately this was not discovered by the guard, and was a great service, admitting air, enabling them to prosecute their work more rapidly. The tunnel, when completed, was about 60 feet long, and opened into an old tobacco shed, beyond the line of guards.

As soon as they found the way clear they emerged slowly in single squads of two or three and sauntered off until they got clear of the guards, making their way towards the Williamsburg Road by the shortest routes. The darkness favored them, and the fact that the rebel soldiers whom they met were habited in the army coats of Uncle Sam, which they had stolen from the supplies sent to our prisoners by our Government was of great help to them. Although they were attired in our army over coats, and many of them had their haversacks, they found the national uniform a better disguise than if they had been provided with genuine rebel uniforms. In order to elude the pursuers who they knew would soon be on their track, they scattered as much as possible.

Many were their hardships and sufferings, and frequently their narrow escapes from the rebel cavalry who the next morning were bushwhacking in every direction for them. The joy they experienced when they first caught sight of our troop sent out to meet and protect them from their pursuers cannot be expressed.

To the officers and men of the 11th Pennsylvania cavalry, whom they first met, they express the most profound gratitude for their unbounded kindness, and also bear testimony to the gallantry with which these gallant fellows pursued the rebel cavalry, and rescued many of the way-worn fugitives who otherwise would have been recaptured. There is good reason to hope that many more will yet come in safe.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 17.—The undersigned escaped officers held a meeting here to-day, and passed a vote of thanks to General Butler, and other officers and men who had assisted them in completing their escape from Libby Prison and lines of pickets, and for many acts of kindness, &c.:

Wm. B. McCreery, 21st Michigan Inf.
George G. Davis, Lieut. Col. 4th Maine volunteers.
T. Street, Lt. Col. 21th Wis. volunteers.
H. C. Hobert, Lt. Col. 21st Wis. vol's.
S. C. Rose, Capt. 4th Reg't Wis. cavalry.
L. C. Clark, Capt. 79th Illinois infantry.
Albert Wallber, 1st Lt. 26th Wis.
Jas. M. Wells, Lt. Col. 8th Mich. Cav.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Twenty-seven of the escaped Union officers from Libby Prison have arrived here, and are nearly all from the West and Northwest.

FROM CHARLESTON.

CHATANOOGA, Tenn., Feb. 16—A gentleman recently from Charleston, S. C., reports one-third on the city abandoned and one-half of the inhabitants gone. The rebels are preparing to defend Fort Sumter with a burning liquid resembling Greek fire.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

THE NEWS.

The Herald's special correspondent says Mr. Lincoln intends to issue a proclamation of Universal emancipation on the 22d inst, It is an appropriate day for such a deed, and we sincerely hope the correspondent is not mistaken. Another correspondent of the same paper gives some of the plans of a contemplated rebel raid into Ohio. The account looks very improbable.

If Congress ever arrives at any definite action upon the whisky question other than a personal use of the article, we should be glad to record the fact. At present the matter is very much "mixed."

The news from Mobile, though not of a definite character, is interesting.

We give a further account of the escape of our prisoners from Richmond.

The occurence of extensive fires at various points, ought to serve as an extra caution to every body to be on the look out during this cold weather, for such calamities at home.

THE WOOD QUESTION AGAIN.—We are informed that the reason the Chicago & N. W. Railway Co., have not furnished the poor of Janesville with wood during the present winter is because they have been unable to procure the same. It has been almost impossible since the heavy fall of snow January 1st, to draw wood enough to supply the engines of the Co. This Co. is willing to do what they can to relieve the poor of our City.

In this connection we would say that wood choppers are much needed along the line of the C. & N. W. Railway, particularly from Jefferson north, and that a reasonable number of men can find immediate employment at good wages. Here is a good chance for those out of work.

THE SPLIT still continues between the different wings of the Free State party in New Orleans. It amounts virtually to a contest between the friends of Messrs. Hahn and Flanders, as to which party shall have the honor of inducting their candidate into the Gubernatorial chair. Fifty-one out of the eighty-seven delegates, who met in State Convention on the 1st, were friends of Mr. Hahn. The other thirty-six preferred Mr. Flanders.

Finding themselves unable to carry their point, the latter seceded from the Convention, and met at another place. The result was the nomination of both Messrs. Hahn and Flanders upon nearly the same platform of principles. The question is one of men, and not of measures. An opinion is entertained that the friends of Mr. Flanders will withdraw their candidate before the election.

ON THE second Tuesday in March the legal voters of New York will meet in their several election districts to vote for or against the proposed Constitutional Amendment authorizing the Legislature to pass such a law or laws as may be necessary to secure the Right of Suffrage to such citizens of that State as may be absent in the Military Service of their country at any election held hereafter.

AARON A. HALL, recently with the Connecticut Cavalry at Baltimore, was arrested at Wallingford, Conn., on the 12th inst., by Major Marcy of the Connecticut Cavalry, charged with circulating counterfeit national bills and currency. A considerable amount of counterfeit bills was found on him. It is thought his arrest will lead to important disclosures and arrest of other parties.

THE accounts between New York and the War Department are still unsettled. New York claims that she had 12,850 surplus on her quotas to June 11, 1863, while the department only admits 4,651.

THE New York Tribune characterises as "surplus energy" the movements in favor of Mr. Lincoln's re-nomination. It must be admitted, however, that the "surplus" is a large one.

John Morgan's Address.

John Morgan has issued the following address to his thieves, from Decatur, Georgia:

SOLDIERS, I am once more among you, after a long and painful imprisonment.

I am anxious to be in the field. I therefore call on all the soldiers of my command to assemble at once at the rendezvous which has been established at this place.

The country needs your services, the field of operation is wide, and the future glorious if we only deserve it.

Remember how many of your brave companions are still pining in the felon's cell. They call loudly on you for help. They expect it of you. Will you disappoint them?

Come at once, and come cheerfully, for I want no man in my command who has to be sent to his duty by a provost Marshal.

The work before us will be arduous, and will require brave hearts and willing hands. Let no man falter or delay, for no time is to be lost.

Every man must bring his horse and gun who can. Those who cannot, will have them furnished.

—A gentleman was surprised, during the late frosty weather, to see his little daughter bring home from the Sunday School library a grave treatise on "Backsliding." "My child," said he, "this is too old for you; you can't make anything of it." "I know it, papa," was the artless reply, "but I thought I could when I took it. I thought it would teach me how to slide backwards."

LOCAL MATTERS.

ARRIVAL OF THE 13TH REG'T!

Reception by the Citizens of Rock Co.

Welcoming Speech by the Mayor!

THE DINNER ETC., ETC., ETC.

The event so long expected and eagerly looked for by the citizens of Rock County—the arrival home of the 13th Regiment—transpired to-day. Arrangements had been made by the people to give these gallant men a cordial reception, and most effectually was the design carried out. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the people were early astir this morning, and the immediate preparations for the occasion were commenced with spirit and energy.

The ladies to whom had been entrusted the setting and arrangement of the tables at Hyatt House Hall, performed their duties most admirably, and soon accommodations were made for seating the entire regiment of 438 men.

The generosity of the people was fully up to the emergencies of the occasion, and a great abundance of the choicest provisions were supplied, with which the tables were loaded down, and there were still large quantities left in the Commissary's department.

Between one and two o'clock a procession, headed by a band, and composed of the officers of the City Government, the Artillery, the several Fire Companies and citizens generally, formed at the corner of Court and Main streets under the Marshalship of Col. McKey and his assistants, Capt. Miltimore and G. Carter Esq., and took up its line of march for the depot, where, upon arriving, it was drawn up in line to await the coming of the train.

At about half past two the train arrived and the men debarked amid the booming of cannon and the cheers and congratulations of the immense crowd which had assembled at the depot. The men being drawn up in line, were welcomed home by Mayor Trent, on behalf of the citizens, in the following happy speech:

Officers and Soldiers of the 13th Wis. Vol.

In behalf of the citizens of Janesville, Rock county, and vicinity, we welcome your return from the excitements, dangers, and arduous duties of the field of strife, as patriots who more than two years ago, voluntarily left us for the camp and field, to engage in a warfare to uphold the government bequeathed to us by the Fathers. You nobly stepped forth at the call of your country to maintain the flag of the Union of States, that we may hand down to posterity unsullied and untarnished the constitution and laws of a free and independent people. We welcome you as compatriots of the grand army of the Union, from the young and loyal State of Wisconsin, acting in concert with the many thousands of loyal hearts from the great North West, the Middle and New England States. We greet you as citizens of our common country, as the uncompromising friends of national integrity, liberty, and human progress.

You return to us after an absence of more than two years, re-enlisted as veterans, to greet your wives, parents, brothers, sisters, and friends, before entering upon a new campaign, which, we indulge a fervent and hopeful prayer, will end this civil war, which in its causlessness and atrocity is unparalleled in the annals of history. A war in which the "tempest's breath, and battle's rage" have for the past three years swept over the land.

You marched forward with no other inducement save that of true patriotism, the love of the country of your birth, or the land of your adoption, determined to fight on until the rebellion is subdued, and its instigators are buried so deep that they shall know no resurrection morn, and until the constitution shall be respected and enforced, in every State, and the old flag triumphantly wave once more over a united, happy, and independent people.

We congratulate you then not only as citizens and patriots, but as soldiers, who have formed a cordon of bristling steel between us and the traitorous hosts, protecting our homes from invasion, and securing our families and our property from all the horrors and devastation of unrelenting warfare.

You deserve homage at our hands, and this reception and ovation, and these words of mine, but feebly express the emotions and sentiments of the hundreds assembled here to-day to welcome your home. While it has been your duty to meet and subdue armed traitors on the ensanguined field, it should be a consolation to you, and all of us, that those who remained at home, have by the ballot sustained your noble endeavors, and blasted the hopes of peace traitors in our midst, and thereby given aid to and nerved the hearts and strengthened the arms of those composing the army of our nation. Soldiers, we have by our zeal and patriotism, filled up your ranks, thinned by disease and battle, and come what will, we shall continue to sustain you until the "the last armed foe expires."

If there be any one here to-day to witness this ovation so lost to all love of country, of justice, and of human rights, as not to breathe a fervent prayer for each and all of you, and the noble cause in which you are engaged, may his arms be palsied and his tongue cleave to the roof of his mouth. If there be such an one, (which God forbid,) let him be banished, and never more know that he has a country and a home.

It is not my province to recount the dreary marches you have endured, and the dangers you have undergone in camp and field, and the sufferings you have experienced, but I may be permitted to say that no orders of your commanding general have been disobeyed, and that wherever duty called, prompted by true courage and devoted patriotism, no sacrifice has been too great for you to make. And history will record it, that you stand forth to-day loyal, brave, and deserving men, champions of the rights of mankind in sustaining the Nation's life; that you have brave hearts and willing hands, writing on the dial-plate of Time "in letters of living light, that noble sentiment of other days and other times, 'UNIVERSAL LIBERTY AND EMANCIPATION.'" That such will be the final result of the great battle now in progress, and that its consummation is not far distant no one can doubt who looks into the historic page of the past, or down the vista of the future. For the Government, the Army and the People are working together in unison and cannot fail to accomplish the task which traitors have imposed upon them. The Administration in power and the brave boys in blue have been sustained by the people at home. We have grown stronger day by day in men and means. The fiery passions of men have been assuaged by the political victories won. And we are once more united in the determination to fight on regardless of party until the rebellion is subdued. Treason is becoming dumb everywhere, and traitors are being destroyed by the havoc of war, and we have fully made up our minds to use all the means which the God of nature has placed in our power to subjugate and even exterminate if necessary, the leaders of the rebellion, to maintain the flag of our country, and preserve the union of the proud galaxy of States which united make us a nation.

For these reasons, and in consideration of all the circumstances attending the rise and progress of the great rebellion, I deem it requires no prophetic pen to truthfully record this day, that the danger and doubt as to the successful termination of the present contest, are rapidly giving place in the minds of all loyal men, to the cheering and grateful feeling that the end is drawing nigh, and that the glorious sunlight of civil and religious liberty and human progress will soon appear, dispelling the poisonous dews exhaled amid the long night of gloom that has enshrouded us; that the proud ship of State has passed the breakers on the rock bound coast of disunion, anarchy, and despotism, and now in an open but turbulent sea is gliding safely and surely to port; that before many months the victory for the life of the nation will have been won; that our wounds will be soothed and healed, and the victors and vanquished will rejoice together; that an age of power, wealth, greatness, glory and union will greet the angel of peace folding her wings over the Nation purified and refined by the ordeal of fratricidal strife; redeemed and regenerated, advancing to that lofty position designed by the Fathers, and finally fulfilling its mission among the nations of the earth, and remaining down to the latest period of time.

Once again, then, in behalf of your friends assembled here, and those at home who wait with open arms to receive you, I bid you a generous, cordial welcome. But soldiers, in looking around us, we miss from your ranks many a familiar face—you have not all returned. You left some on duty on the tented field, some in hospital, but many others, alas! you have laid quietly away beneath the turf of the valleys and plains of the southwest, of which the vacant chairs at the home firesides give painful evidence. In all our land, in the streets, in our churches, and in the social circle, the habiliments of mourning, and the widow's and orphan's tears, prove the melancholy fact that death has bereft the soldier's relatives. They are gone, but they have not died in vain. We shall fondly cherish their memory. They belong to the immortal dead, whose memory and deeds their country and their friends will ever honor. They will never more respond to your roll call, but from the realms above, we firmly believe that they, cognizant of human transpirations, will send spirit words of cheer to you and all of us. Their virtues and noble sacrifices are recommended to our imitation and emulation by the radiance emenating from the tomb. Their sacred and noble heroism shall rear for them monumentum perrenius aeri.

The welcoming address concluded, the procession took up its line of march.

Cheers and waving of handkerchiefs as they passed along the street testified to these returned veterans the pleasure felt by the people of Rock county at seeing them again.

After the men had had an opportunity to see their friends for a short time they were ushered in to partake of the dinner which had been provided.

[The exercises at the table were so late that we were compelled to defer an account of them until to-morrow.]

In another place we have given the roster of the Regiment as it was when it left the State. Below we give it as it now is:

Colonel—Wm. P. Lyon.
Major—Thomas O. Bigney.
Quartermaster—Platt Eycleshimer.
Surgeon—John M. Evans.
Assistant Surgeon—Chas. M. Smith.
Chaplain—Joseph I. Foot.

NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS.

Sergeant Major—Jason W. Hall.
Qr. Master Serg't—Thos. O. Russell.
Commissary Serg't—Canute R. Matson.
Hospital Steward—H. M. Havens.
Drum Major—Ira Snyder.
Fife Major—M. D. Warren.

LINE OFFICERS.

Co. A—Lieut. Samuel C. Cobb.
" C—Capt. A. H. Kummel.
" C—Lieut. J. F. Fisk.
" D—Capt. E. W. Blake.
" E—Capt. R. H. Hewitt.
" E—Lieut. L. Parker.
Co. F—Lt. S. S. Hart.
" G—Capt. A. N. Randall.
" G—Lt. H. M. Balis.

" I—Lt. W. A. Kinlaus.
" I—Lt. Ira B. Dutton.
" K—Lt. John H. Wemple.

The regiment numbers 420 veterans and has 250 men who are not eligible, not having served two years. Most of these latter have declared their intention to re-enter the service should the government offer them the opportunity. The men are looking hearty and well, and seem to be in the best of spirits.

NOTICE TO GAS CONSUMERS.—I regret to say to the citizens of Janesville that in consequence of the breakage of a pipe in the Gas Holder, the Gas company will be unable to furnish gas for this evening.

JAS. HENDLEY, Supt.

WELCOME TO THE "THIRTEENTH."

AT HOME ON FURLOUGH, FEBRUARY 18th, 1864.

W. P. LYON, COLONEL COMMANDING.

We've waited, watched and waited long,
And now we're glad to see
Your dear, familiar faces, boys,
Brave sons of liberty.

CHORUS.
Our Lyon-hearted veterans
From War's red field are come!
Brave boys we give you hearty cheer,
We proudly hail you home.

You've borne our banner nobly, boys,
You've done your duties well—
And of your patriotic deeds
Shall future annals tell.
Our Lyon-hearted veterans, &c.

And when the war is over, boys,
Rebellion crushed for aye,
Then to your homes you'll come again,
And come next time to stay.
Our Lyon-hearted veterans, &c.

Treason subdued, and peace restored,
Justice and freedom won,
We'll shout a cordial welcome, boys,
As here to-day we've done.

Our Lyon-hearted veterans
From War's red field are come!
Brave boys, we give you hearty cheer,
We proudly hail you home!

G. W. L.

The Thirteenth.

As matter appropriate to the occasion, we publish below an extract from the report of the Adjutant General for 1862, which gives something of a history of the 13th Regiment, up to the time the report was made:

The Thirteenth was organized at Camp Tredway, near Janesville, under the superintendence of Col. Maurice Maloney a Captain in the regular army, and was mustered into the United States service on the 17th of October, 1861. They remained in camp until the 18th of January, 1862, when they left the State under orders to report to Major Gen. Hunter, at Leavenworth, Kansas. On the 20th they crossed the Mississippi on the ice at Quincy, Illinois, marched to Palmyra, Mo., and took the railroad for Weston, Missouri, where they arrived next day. Two days after they crossed the Missouri on the ice, and marched to Leavenworth City, Kansas. On the 7th of February they began the long March for Fort Scott, en route for Fort Smith, Arkansas, to form part of Gen. Jim. Lane's "Grand South-Western Expedition," halting on the way from the 12th to the 17th, at a point on the Marie des Lignes river, two and a half miles from Ossawatomie Village, Kansas, crossing the river on the 17th, and marching by way of Fort Lincoln, and they reached Fort Scott on the 21st, and encamped, having marched one hundred and sixty miles from Leavenworth City.

They remained at Fort Scott until the 26th of March, when they were ordered to Lawrence, Kansas, en route for New Mexico. Here they arrived on the 31st, having marched one hundred and fifteen miles. On the 21st of April, they took up the line of march for New Mexico, and having accomplished the distance of one hundred and five miles in seven days, they arrived at Fort Riley on the 28th. At this point the "Great Expedition" was abandoned, and on the 19th of May, they were ordered to return to Leavenworth, en route for Corinth Miss. Another march of one hundered and twenty-five miles, and they again arrived at Leavenworth on the 28th. Here they took part in a grand review, to which Wisconsin contributed the Eighth Battery, Twelfth and Thirteenth Infantry and Third Cavalry. Next day they embarked on steamer, at Leavenworth, and proceeding down the Missouri river, arrived at Columbus, Kentucky, on the 3d of June. Three days after they marched to Moscow, Ky., distant eighteen miles, and were stationed along the Mobile and Ohio railroad, from Columbus, Ky., to Corinth, Miss. They were thus engaged, guarding the railroad at different points until the 30th, when the regiment returned to Columbus. While stationed at this post, company D. Capt. Blake commanding, was, on the 20th of August, detached to Hickman, Ky., and after an absence of twelve months, rejoined the regiment at Fort Donelson, on the 21st of August, 1863. On the 19th, company G, under command of Major Bigney, was detached to Smithland, Ky., and rejoined the regiment at Fort Henry, Tenn., on the 12th of November.

On the 25th of August, a part of the regiment left Columbus by steamer and disembarked at Fort Henry, Tenn.; they were followed by the remainder, except companies D, and G, on the 31st. The regiment marched to Fort Donelson, distant twelve miles, on the 2d of September, where they assumed the duties of garrison of that important post. On the 5th they marched with an expedition, under command of Colonel W. W. Lowe, of Iowa, against Clarksville, Tennessee, at which place a force of rebels were stationed. They discovered the enemy in ambush, on the 7th, about nine hundred strong, near Rickett's Hill. After a short skirmish, the rebels were utterly routed, leaving their killed and wounded in our hands. A large number of small arms, horses and mules were captured, together with about forty thousand dollars worth of army stores. The expedition, having marched about seventy miles, returned on the 8th, to Fort Donelson.

During the remainder of this and the succeeding months, the regiment was engaged principally in scouting expeditions through the surrounding country, watching the movements of guerrillas and irregular troops, and preventing the aggregation of any considerable body of the rebel force. On the last of October, they embarked on steamers, and proceeded to Shoditz Landing, on the Tennessee, where they joined the other troops, under command of Gen. T. E. G. Ransom. They marched to and forded the Cumberland river, and thence proceeded to Hopkinsville to attack the rebel General Morgan. They arrived at this place on the 4th of November, but no enemy could be found. Two days after, on the evening of the 6th, they came up with the rebels, commanded by Woodward, near Garretsburg. After a short but severe and decisive skirmish, the enemy escaped under cover of the darkness, leaving forty-six killed and wounded on the field. Our forces captured fourteen horses and a large number of horses, saddles, shot guns and equipments. Our loss was trifling. On the 7th they returned to Hopkinsville. On the 11th they had arrived at Fort Donelson and next day returned to Fort Henry, where they again assumed garrison duty, having marched a distance of one hundred and sixty five miles.

From the 21st of December to the end of the year, they were engaged in the pursuit of the rebel commander Forrest, whose force they followed through Western Tennessee, driving him towards Corinth, near which place his command was defeated and dispersed by Gen. Sullivan, with the loss of a number of prisoners and most of his artillery. In this expedition they marched one hundred and twenty miles, and returned to Fort Henry on the 1st of January, 1863. During the month they were employed on the river between Fort Henry and Hamburg Landing, Tennessee, in guarding steamers laden with stores and supplies.

On the 3d of February, at four in the afternoon, information was received that Fort Donelson was attacked, and that a severe fight was going on. In half an hour the regiment was on the road, marching to reinforce the Eighty-Third Illinois, at that important point. After driving the enemy's skirmishers five miles, they arrived in the vicinity of the Fort, at ten in the evening, with a loss of one man wounded on the march. Meanwhile, the garrison, assisted by the gunboats, had repulsed the enemy with severe loss, and gained a glorious victory. They were stationed at Fort Donelson on the 3d of March, thus holding the extreme right and front of the "Army of the Cumberland." During the spring and summer, companies and detachments from the regiment were constantly engaged in scouring and scouring the surrounding country, taking many prisoners, and preventing the formation of any considerable force of guerrillas, or other irregular troops. This duty, perhaps the most difficult and irksome the soldier is called upon to discharge, was performed to the entire satisfaction of their superior officers.

Participating in the forward movement of the "Army of the Cumberland," they left Fort Donelson on the 27th of August, and marching by way of Columbia, Tennessee, arrived at Stevenson, Alabama, a distance of two hundred and sixty miles, on the 14th of September. Col. William P. Lyon was placed in command of the post, and the whole body of troops there stationed.

The Thirteenth has never been engaged in a general engagement, but from their first experience of the hardships of a soldier's life, in the endless—and apparently aimless—marches on the western frontier down to their latest record, they have uniformly performed their whole duty, as ordered by superior officers. The record of men, occupying such positions as they have been called upon to sustain, presents little to dazzle the imagination; but the tireless vigilance which relaxes not, day after day and week after week, although lacking the excitement which accompanies the movement of armies, cannot fail to command our admiration and respect for the Thirteenth Regiment Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry.

CELEBRATION OF WASHINGTON'S BIRTH DAY.—The only public demonstration in this city looking to the celebration of Washington's birth day—the 22d inst—is a festival by Washington Engine Co., No. 3. From what we can gather of the entertainment, it promises to be one of the finest affairs of the season. The committee of arrangements are thorough young men, and will leave nothing undone to make the occasion a pleasant one.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—One of our most respected and best known citizens, disappeared mysterously last Tuesday afternoon. Circumstances indicate a matrimonial affair, but as to this we cannot state positively, though we think it probable that a pair of bright eyes and ruby lips may have led one of our quietest citizens astray from the comforts of his bachelor home. "Have you seen Sam?"

EXTENSIVE RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS.—The Chicago and Northwestern Railway Co., have decided to build a general car reparing shop at this place. The plans are completed and the work will be commenced early in the spring. The building will be two hundred feet long by forty five in width. This is a much needed improvement, and its necessity will secure an early completion of the building.

The stone arch way which this Company is building over Clarion street, Monterey, is evidence of the fact that they are determined that all their improvements shall be lasting. It is large and capable of accommodating the large amount of travel which is constantly passing through it.

We hear of other improvements in the shape of buildings &c., which we shall publish in detail at some future time.

NOTICE.—Mr. Wade Hampton—a colored man, for several years a local preacher in the South—will preach in the M. E. Church in this city next Sabath, at 4½ o'clock P. M.

All people of color in the City, especially, and others who may please to do so, are kindly invited to be present on the occasion.

MARRIED.

At the Myers House, by Rev. R. B. Curtis, Feb. 17th inst., Mr. JOHN D. HOLMES and Miss ELLEN M. GRINNELL, both of the town of Turtle.

Also, at the same time and place, Mr. LYMAN E. SWEET and Miss CORNELIA A. HOLMES, of the same place.

At Chicago, on the 17th inst., by Rev. Z. M. Humphrey, SAMUEL H. CULVER, of this city, to Miss DELIA N. HANLEY, of Chicago.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Turtle, Wis., Feb. 17th, 1864, by Rev. W. H. Barnard, Mr. LEVI B. RAYMOND and Miss MARY O. LEVERICH, all of Turtle.

FROM WESTERN VIRGINIA.

HEADQUARTERS DEP'T. WESTERN VIRGINIA, Feb. 17.

A correspondent of the Herald at Gallipolis, Ohio, informs me that he has had an interview with Mr. Wyhart, a fugitive and escaped conscript from near Jefferson, N. C., who gives him important information, as follows:

About three weeks ago over thirty long, narrow and open boxes, corked, tarred and made pointed at one end, were sent to Wythville, in Wyth Co., Western Va. These boxes were styled pontoons. Officers had arrived and sent out men to collect strong, light wagons and good horses from farmers of the neighborhood. It was whispered among military men that there would soon be a raid made into Ohio, and that the pontoons referred to would be drawn overland to either the Neuse or Kanawha river, and worked and floated down the Ohio, and that some would be crossed at two points, one column going by way of Barbarsville and Guyandotte. It was rumored and expected that troops would arrive for concentration from both the Eastern and Western rebel armies. In regard to the above report, I can only say that rumors have been in circulation for some time past of mysterious movements on the line of the Virginia & Tennessee railroad.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Herald's Special.—It is understood that on the 22d of Feb. Mr. Lincoln will issue a proclamation of universal emancipation, including the border States.

It is probable a conference will agree upon some plan similar to that of the Senate in regard to the tax on whisky.

Times' Special.—The committee on the conduct of the war will soon examine into the causes of the inactivity of the iron clad fleet off Charleston.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Tribune's Special.—Brigadier General Mitchell was to-day relieved as President of general Court Martial and ordered West. The Court is thus reduced to less than a minimum, and therefore dissolved.

World's Special.—It is understood that every member of the Senate Judiciary Committee believe the House resolution forfeiting the property of rebels beyond the life estate, to be unconstitutional.—The Committee have reported against its passage.

It was stated at the War Department and Provost Marshal's office that it will be next to impossible to carry out and execute the new enrollment bill in the coming draft.

The gold bill of the Ways and Means Committee will be extensively debated.

The House Military Committee to-day discussed the question of changing the Provost Marshal's office and to make the head of that department a Brigadier. It will probably be adopted. The object is to get rid of Col. Fry.

The Conference Committee on the Conscription Act met to-day. The House Committee insisted on $300 as the commutation fee, and the Senate urged $400 and that to apply as exemption for one draft.

The Ways and Means Committee hope to report before next week the amended tax bill on tobacco, petrolium, &c. It is hardly thought any additional tax will be placed on manufactures in the new bill.

FROM THE SOUTH.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 18.—A fire at Charleston, Va., on the 16th, destroyed Shields' dry goods store and Inman's House. Loss $25,000. Small insurance.

The Gazette's Chattanooga dispatch says information from the rebel army is contradictory. Some declare Johnston's entire force is around Dalton, others that large portions, including artillery at Kingston, have gone to reinforce Longstreet. John Morgan is said to be in the vicinity of Dalton with considerable cavalry force preparing for a raid. General Watts of Alabama telegraphed to the citizens of Selma, to prepare to receive non-combatants from Mobile, as that place will be soon attacked by the federals.

The steamer Denelgh was lost recently in attempting to run the blockade from Mobile.

Mobile papers think Sherman's plan is to penetrate to central Alabama, compelling the evacuation of Mobile. No indication in news report that Gen. Grant is preparing for active operations.

FIRE AT GALENA.

GALENA, Feb. 17—The double brick residences on Washington street, owned by Messrs. Scate & Wirtenberger, was entirely consumed by fire this afternoon. Part of the furniture was saved in a damaged condition. Mercury marked 20 degrees below zero this morning.

GREAT FIRE IN GLOUCESTER AND PHILADELPHIA!

An Arsenal on Rock Island!

AMOUNT OF GOLD IN THE TREASURY!

FROM MADISON.

Special Dispatch to the Janesville Gazette.

MADISON, Feb. 18, 1864.

The State Firemen's Association held here last night and to-day was very largely attended, and everything is passing off satisfactorily. The next Tournament will be held in Fond du Lac, August 25th and 26th, and it will be the largest gathering of firemen ever had in the west.

J. C. S.

FROM GLOUCESTER, MASS.

GLOUCESTER, Mass.—Feb.—18.—About one-half of this place was destroyed by fire this morning.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 18.—A fire on Front street below Lombard this morning consumed eight dwellings occupied by poor people. Weather intensely cold.

The large woolen mill of James Lee, on Mill Creek, Montgomery county, was entirely destroyed by fire last night.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—HOUSE.—A bill passed providing for the Government obtaining from the owners of Rock Island, Ill., a place to erect an arsenal. The House proceeded to the consideration of the plan to sell the surplus gold in the Treasury. Hooker stated that the amount of gold on hand Saturday last was nearly $19,000,000, and estimates show there will be on the 1st of July about $37,000,000. The requirements for gold from now until the 1st of July to make payments of interest of the public debt will be less than twenty-four millions, showing an excess of about $12,000,000, which may be sold.

THE ESBAPE FROM LIBBY.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 17.—The escaped Union officers reached here this morning, and go to Washington this afternoon. The account of their escape is full of thrilling interest, but for prudential reasons many particulars are withheld from publication at present.

They were forty-one days making a tunnel. Having managed to find access to the cellar, they commenced work, relieving one another as opportunity offered. Their instruments were case knives, pocket knives, chisels and files. Twice they had to abandon their work and commence anew, on account of obstructions which they could not pass. They had hoped to avail themselves of a culvert, but found it impracticable after getting through the wall. They disposed of the excavated soil by drawing it out in a spittoon, which they attached to a cord. This would be filled by the party at work in the tunnel, and pulled out into the cellar by their companions, who disposed of it by spreading it in shallow layers of the floor, concealing it beneath the straw. The work was necessarily very slow. So close was the atmosphere in the tunnel that they could remain in it but a few minutes at a time, and their candles would go out. At one time they got so near the head of the street that a small hole, about the size of a stove pipe broke through, but fortunately this was not discovered by the guard, and was a great service, admitting air, enabling them to prosecute their work more rapidly. The tunnel, when completed, was about 60 feet long, and opened into an old tobacco shed, beyond the line of guards.

As soon as they found the way clear they emerged slowly in single squads of two or three and sauntered off until they got clear of the guards, making their way towards the Williamsburg Road by the shortest routes. The darkness favored them, and the fact that the rebel soldiers whom they met were habited in the army coats of Uncle Sam, which they had stolen from the supplies sent to our prisoners by our Government was of great help to them. Although they were attired in our army over coats, and many of them had their haversacks, they found the national uniform a better disguise than if they had been provided with genuine rebel uniforms. In order to elude the pursuers who they knew would soon be on their track, they scattered as much as possible.

Many were their hardships and sufferings, and frequently their narrow escapes from the rebel cavalry who the next morning were bushwhacking in every direction for them. The joy they experienced when they first caught sight of our troops sent out to meet and protect them from their pursuers cannot be expressed.

To the officers and men of the 11th Pennsylvania cavalry, whom they first met, they express the most profound gratitude for their unbounded kindness, and also bear testimony to the gallantry with which these gallant fellows pursued the rebel cavalry, and rescued many of the way-worn fugitives who otherwise would have been recaptured. There is good reason to hope that many more will yet come in safe.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 17.—The undersigned escaped officers held a meeting here to-day, and passed a vote of thanks to General Butler, and other officers and men who had assisted them in completing their escape from Libby Prison and lines of pickets, and for many acts of kindness, &c.:

Wm. B. McCreery, 21st Michigan Inf.
George G. Davis, Lieut. Col. 4th Maine volunteers.
T. Streat, Lt. Col. 24th Wis. volunteers.
H. C. Hobert, Lt. Col. 21st Wis. vol's.
S. C. Rose, Capt. 4th Reg't Wis. cavalry.
L. C. Clark, Capt. 79th Illinois infantry.
Albert Wallber, 1st Lt. 26th Wis.
Jas. M. Wells, Lt. Col. 8th Mich. Cav.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Twenty-seven of the escaped Union officers from Libby Prison have arrived here, and are nearly all from the West and Northwest.

FROM CHARLESTON.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Feb. 16—A gentleman recently from Charleston, S. C., reports one-third on the city abandoned and one-half of the inhabitants gone. The rebels are preparing to defend Fort Sumter with a burning liquid resembling Greek fire.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1864.

Copperhead Clamor.

According to the copperhead journals, Mr. Lincoln has become a "Dictator" and this government is assimilating itself to that of Austria. Aside from the absurdity and ridiculousness of this idea, these papers give the lie to their own assertions on their very face. If the President was the dictator they claim he is, how long would he suffer these miserable, slanderous, seditious sheets to see the light? They are a standing, ignoble evidence of the long suffering and slowness to anger of this government, and of the patience and anti-holocratic spirit of the people. Vituperation, misrepresentation and abuse, the most flagrant and inexcusable teem in their columns, and yet the people pay little attention to them, and the President, in one memorable instance at least, has interposed to save one of their number from the just retribution which the military power felt justified in administering. Toleration towards them has been carried to the extreme, yet they howl and revile all the more lustily. They are let severely alone, and that's what's the matter with them. They are extremely anxious to become martyrs, and like one celebrated in verse, are solicitous to know "when the persecuting is going to commence."

The Progress of Opinion.

Whatever may be thought of the reason, there can be no doubt of the fact that Public Opinion drifts steadily and strongly in favor of making speedy and thorough work with Slavery. Nobody shrinks or winces now when called an Abolitionist; no one feels that he need explain or apologize for the fact that the War for the Union is necessarily an anti-Slavery war. The following extract from the recent speech in the House of Hon. James A. Garfield of Ohio, (late Chief of Staff to Gen. Rosecrans,) vividly and tersely gives the nature and causes of the great and rapid change in public opinion. Hear him:

"I remember to have said to a friend when I entered the army. "You hate Slavery; so do I; but I hate Disunion more. Let us drop the Slavery question and fight to sustain the Union." When the supremecy of the Government has been reestablished, we will attend to the other question."

"I started out with that position, taken in good faith, as did thousands of others of all parties. But the army soon found that, do what it would, the black panthom met it everywhere, in the camp, in the bivouac, on the battle-field, and at all times. It was a ghost that would not be laid. Slavery was both the strength and weakness of the enemy. His strength—for it tilled his fields and fed his legions; his weakness—for in the hearts of slaves dwelt dim prophecies that their deliverance from bondage would be the outcome of the war.

"The negroes came from the cotton-fields; they swam rivers; they climbed mountains; they came through jungles, in the darkness and storms of the night, to tell us that the enemy was coming here or coming there. They were our true friends in every case. There has hardly been a battle, a march, or any important event of the war, when the friend of our cause, the black man, has not been found truthful and helpful, and always devotedly loyal. The conviction forced itself on the mind of every soldier that, behind the Rebel army of soldiers, the black army of laborers were feeding and sustaining the rebellion, and there could be no victory till its main support be taken away.

"Gentlemen on the other side, you tell me that this is an Abolition war. If you please to say so, I grant it. The rapid current of events has made the army of the Republic an Abolition army. I can find in the ranks a thousand men who are in favor of sweeping away Slavery to every dozen that desire to preserve it. They have been where they haveseen its malevolence, its baleful effect upon the country and the Union, and they demand that it shall be swept away."

PROSPECTS OF RAISING THE SUNKEN IRON-CLADS.—Information has been received from Charleston in relation to raising the iron-clads Weehawken and Keokuk. The workmen had already made considerable efforts to get up the Keokuk, which were crowned with comparative success, when the weather became so unfavorable that the work had to be stopped. It is supposed that by this time the operations have recommenced. The Weehawken, it is feared, cannot be got up, too much time having elapsed before efforts were made to raise her. It is stated positively that the sinking of the Weehawken was owing, as stated orginally, to the negligence of the executive officer, in leaving one of the forward hatches open. The Weehawken is valued at $450,000, and the Keokuk at about half that sum.

VERY near one hundred and ten thousand new recruits have been formally mustered into the service since the 1st of November last, and many more thousands are known to be enlisted, although not yet mustered in. The last two weeks the enlistments have averaged 1,800 a day. Of the number formally mustered into the service, New York has furnished about 16,000, Ohio 16,000, Indiana and Illinois 12,000 each, Missouri about 7,000, and Pennsylvania only the same number.

MILWAUKEE POST OFFICE.—Three numerously signed petitions are in circulation in Milwaukee favoring the appointment of different parties for the position of Post Master in place of John Lockwood, who is just now giving more attention to abandoned plantations than he is to a Post Office that has been abandoned by him for more than two months. The petitions are severally in favor of Elisha Starr, C. K. Wells and J. B. Smith.

A WASHINGTON corespondent says: "We are enabled to state, upon the very highest authority, that Gen. Grant has within a few days formally, peremptory, and in the most decisive terms, rejected direct offers made to him lately by leading Democratic politicians to secure his nomination for the Presidency by their National Convention."

JUDGE WAYNE, on Monday delivered the opinion of the Supreme Court, declining to interfere in the case of Clement L. Vallandigham, and refusing a writ of certiorari to the Judge Advocate General.

Letter from Captain C. W. Baker.

HEADQUARTERS 14TH U. S. COLORED TROOPS,
CHATTANOOGA, TENN., Feb. 8th, 1864.

Dear Parents:—By a glance at the heading, you will see that I have "changed my base," for a short time at least. I am here on duty as a member of a court martial; my company is still at Bridgeport.

I have visited Chattanooga once before, and at that time under very different auspices—a prisoner in rebel hands—and have for a long time been desirous of a second view of it under more pleasant circumstances. Chattanooga then and now are two very dissimilar places. Then "rebs" congregated in the streets and public places to look at the "Yanks" going through as prisoners. Now Yankees are prevalent; blue clothes are everywhere, and all the rebs to be seen are either prisoners or deserters who are repentant, and are here to take advantage of the President's proclamation of amnesty. I believe that proclamation to be a great and good thing, and that it is working incalculable damage to the rebel cause. Deserters are coming in by thousands, and many of them are giving satisfactory proof of the sincerity of their repentance by enlisting to fight under the "old flag," knowing full well what their fate will be if captured. I will give you one item by which you can judge of the rapid depletion of the rebel army. Yesterday (Sunday) three hundred and fifty deserters came in before noon! This is, I think, perfectly reliable, as I had it from good authority, and from one likely to be well informed.

The other day I visited Fort Wood, garrisoned by a company of the 1st Wisconsin Heavy Artillery, Capt. Davis. I stood upon the parapet where Gen. Grant stood during the progress of the battles of Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge, and Capt. D. pointed out to me the prominent points in the landscape, now rendered historically famous, and described the battles, of which he had a splendid view, besides the honor of being to some extent a participant therein. I can almost believe that such a sight

"Were worth ten years of peaceful life."

Four companies of our regiment are here, under the command of Lieut. Colonel Morgan. A dress parade is had every afternoon, at which time many officers and men from white regiments attend, curious to see how these men look and act in their new position as soldiers. The spectators generally seem surprised that our men do so well, and frequently compliment them on their drill and soldierly appearance. Much of the prejudice against colored soldiers has vanished, and the sentiment seems setting the other way; the men in the army are disposed to watch the movement with candid eyes and to render "honor where honor is due." All that we, the officers in this new branch of the service, ask is, that these men be given a fair trial, and we are confident as to the result—that they will win honor and credit for being brave, enduring and well disciplined.

I think that probably the regiment will be consolidated in a short time with a view to some kind of service. We at present hear hints of some very pleasant duty in store for us, concerning which I will write more fully soon.

Affectionately, your son,
CLARENCE W. BAKER.

The Enrollment Act.

After considerable filibustering in the House, the substitute offered by General Schenck, Chairman of the Military Committee for the enrollment bill, was passed by a vote of 93 to 58. The principal features of this new bill are as follows:

All exemptions, including the Vice-President, Justices of the United States Courts, Governors, &c., and excepting only those incapactinted from mental or physical disability, or who have served two years during the present war, are done away with.

Negroes, both slaves and free, are to be enrolled and drafted. In case the slaves of loyal masters be drafted or enlist, a bounty of $100 is to be paid to masters who prove their loyalty, and a commission is to be appointed in each slave State now represented in Congress, who shall award to the said masters a fair price for the slave, not to exceed $300. All slaves so drafted or enlisted to be free forever. The providing of a substitute only exempts a man from draft during the time for which such a substitute is not liable to draft.

When the substitute becomes liable to draft, the person originally drafted must serve himself or furnish another substituto. The payment of $300 commutation only exempts a man until the names then in the wheel shall become exhausted. All sects or persons who have religious scruples against and whose creed prevents them from fighting, and who can prove that their lives have been consistent with this idea, are to be allowed when drafted to go into the hospital or to assist in taking care of the freedmen. If the first draft does not give the number required, the draft is to be repeated.

Sections 19 and 20 of the present enrollment act, referring to the consolidation of regiments and dismissals of supernumerary officers, are hereby repealed. Payments of bounties to loyal masters for negroes now in the service are to be made out with the stipulation that all such slaves are to be free.

NEGRO ARGUMENT.—A gentleman owned a slave and a very intelligent fellow, who was a Universalist. On one occasion he illustrated the intellectual character of his religion in the following manner:

A certain slave had obtained a license of the Baptists to preach. He was holding forth in the presence of many of his colored brethren at one time, when he undertook to describe the process of Adam's creation:

"When God made Adam, He stooped down, scraped up a little dirt, wet it a little, warmed it in his hands, and squeezed it in de right shape, and den lean it up against de fence to dry—"

"Top dere," said our Universalist darkey; "you say dat are de fust man eber made?"

"Sartain," said the preacher.

"Den," said the other, "just tell a feller whar dat are fence come from!"

"Hush!" said the preacher, "two questions like dat would spile all de feology in de world."

GENERALS IN SERVICE.—By statements from the War Department, furnished the the Senate, it appears that there are 70 major-generals, the number allowed by law, in service and drawing pay, and 274 brigadier-generals, one less than the number provided for by law.

Proceedings of the Sorghum Convention.

At the late meeting of the sorgh um growers of this State, the discussions were so extended and full of interest, both practical and scientific, that it was quite out of the question to expect local papers to publish the entire proceedings, and, therefore, on the last day of the session a publishing committee was appointed, consisting of Secretary O. S. Willey, J. W. Hoyt, M. K. Young, E. Wilcox and W. W. Field.

Subsequently a resolution was introduced by Mr. Skinner, and unanimously carried, drawing the attention of the Legislature to the importance of the subject, and was as follows:

Resolved, That we deem the discussions and statistics collected at this convention, of sufficient importance to the public, to warrent extensive distribution; and we respectfully request the Legislature to authorize the publication of the same.

This is a good move in the right direction. A vast amount of valuable information was imparted and the State should have the benefit of it. We learn from Secretary Willey, that he has the minutes nearly written out, and will soon be prepared to present them to the Legislature in connection with the above resolution; and, with the known ability of the publishing committee we shall look for a "hand book of Sorghum" that should be placed in the hands of every man who thinks of growing a rod of cane the coming season. Wisconsin seems fully arroused to the subject of growing her own sugar and syrup, and her light should not be hid under a bushel.—Madison Journal.

MILITARY APPOINTMENTS.—The following commissions have been issued by the Governor to Feb. 12, 1864:

30*th Reg.*—Private George E. Albee as 2d Lieut. Co. F; Private Wm. R. Newton, as 2d Lieut. Co. G; Private Geo. S. Morris, as 2d Lieut. Co. H.

14*th Reg.*—H. Benson, M. D., as Surgeon, vice Torrey, deceased.

The following recruiting commissions for the 36th regiment have been issued:

Clemente E. Warner, of Windsor, Dane county.
George A. Fiske, of Sparta, Monroe county.
Jno. F. Stillman, of Eau Clare.
Reuben Lindlay, of Fond du Lac.
William H. Hamilton, of Spring Green, Sauk county.
Jas. S. Frisbee, of Wilwaukee
Paul Halverson, of Cottage Grove, Dane county.
James Woodford, of Portland, Dodge county.
Chas. White, of Milton, Rock county.
A. S. Rogers, of Spring Lake Waushara county.
Austin Cannon, of Springvale, Columbia county.
Charles E. Griffin, of Delevan, Walworth county.
Jacob Walkey, of Monroe, Green county.
Joseph H. Davidson, of Oak Dale, Monroe county.
Stephen Cross, Windsor, Dane county.
John W. North, of Brighton, Kenosha county.

—The spirit of the Union people in Arkansas is shown by the following extract from the Little Rock Democrat:

It is a remarkable fact that, for the arms-bearing population left in it, this State, since the advent of Gen. Steele, has furnished more volunteers for the Union army than any equal number elsewhere. Counties where Jeff Davis' conscript officers could not find a score of men, have since sent full companies to the Union army.

LYON'S KATHAIRON.
LYON'S KATHAIRON!—Kathairon is from the Greek word "Kathro," or "Kathairo," signifying to cleanse, rejuvenate, and restore. This article is what its name signifies. For preserving, restoring, and beautifying the human hair, it is the most remarkable preparation in the world. It is again owned and put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill, and attention which gave it a sale of over one million bottles per annum.
It is a most delightful Hair Dressing.
It eradicates scurf and dandruff.
It keeps the head cool and clean.
It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy.
It prevents the hair from falling off and turning grey.
It restores hair upon bald heads.
Any lady or gentleman who values a beautiful head of hair should use Lyon's Kathairon. It is known and used throughout the civilized world. Sold by all respectable dealers. DEMAS S. BARNES & CO.,

WYNKOOP'S ICELAND PECTORAL.
Diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Pulmonary Organs are ever prevalent, insidious and dangerous. The properties of a medicine to alleviate, cure, and uproot these complaints, must be expectorant, anodyne and invigorating, loosening the mucus of the throat, and imparting tone to the entire system. No discovery in medical science ever mastered this class of diseases like Dr. Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral. It is used with the most astonishing results in all cases of Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Diptheria or Putrid Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, Coughs, Colds, Nervous Irritability, &c.
The Rev. J. J. POTTER certifies—"that I have used Dr. Wynkoop's Pectoral for several years, myself and in my family, for severe pulmonary complaints, and have recommended it to many others, and have never seen its equal." Rev. J. J. POTTER, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Hundreds and thousands of important testimonials could be produced, showing its remarkable cures and that it never fails.
It is composed of pure Iceland Moss, Balm of Gilead, Peruvian Balsam, Elecampane, Comfrey, Burdock, and other invaluable expectorant and tonic ingredients. It is harmless, prompt and lasting. Invalids and sufferers cannot afford to neglect a trial. Every family should have it. It is remarkable for Croup. Full descriptions, recommendations and directions accompany each bottle.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINES.
OUR LETTER A FAMILY SEWING MACHINE is fast gaining a world-wide reputation. It is beyond a doubt the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Family Sewing Machines yet offered to the public. No other Family Sewing Machine has so many useful appliances for hemming, binding, felling, tucking, gathering, gauging, braiding, embroidering, cording, and so forth. No other Family Sewing Machine has so much capacity for a great variety of work. It will sew all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Great and recent improvements make our Family Sewing Machine most reliable, and most durable, and most certain in action at all rates of speed. It makes the interlocked stitch, which is the best stitch known. Any one, even of the most ordinary capacity, can see at a glance, how to use the letter A Family Sewing Machine. Our Family Sewing Machines are finished in chaste and exquisite style.
The Folding Case of the Family Machine is a piece of cunning workmanship of the most useful kind. It protects the machine when not in use, and when about to be operated may be opened as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work. While some of the Cases made out of the choicest woods, are finished in the simplest and chastest manner possible, others are adorned and embellished in the most costly and superb manner.
It is absolutely necessary to see the Family Machine in operation, so as to judge of its great capacity and beauty.
It is fast becoming as popular for family sewing as our Manufacturing machines are for manufacturing purposes.
The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, oil, &c., of the very best quality.

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE.
It is not a DYE, but restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a luxuriant beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original Hair coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of the commercial agents, D. S. BARNES & Co., 202 Broadway, New York. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1. augldawcowly

Janesville Daily Gazette.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1864.

Copperhead Clamor.

According to the copperhead journals, Mr. Lincoln has become a "Dictator" and this government is assimilating itself to that of Austria. Aside from the absurdity and ridiculousness of this idea, these papers give the lie to their own assertions on their very face. If the President was the dictator they claim he is, how long would he suffer these miserable, slanderous, seditious sheets to see the light? They are a standing, ignoble evidence of the long suffering and slowness to anger of this government, and of the patience and anti-monocratic spirit of the people. Vituperation, misrepresentation and abuse, the most flagrant and inexcusable teem in their columns, and yet the people pay little attention to them, and the President, in one memorable instance at least, has interposed to save one of their number from the just retribution which the military power felt justified in administering. Toleration towards them has been carried to the extreme, yet they howl and revile all the more lustily. They are let severely alone, and that's what's the matter with them. They are extremely anxious to become martyrs, and like one celebrated in verse, are solicitous to know "when the persecuting is going to commence."

The Progress of Opinion.

Whatever may be thought of the reason, there can be no doubt of the fact that Public Opinion drifts steadily and strongly in favor of making speedy and thorough work with Slavery. Nobody shrinks or winces now when called an Abolitionist; no one feels that he need explain or apologize for the fact that the War for the Union is necessarily an anti-Slavery war. The following extract from the recent speech in the House of Hon. James A. Garfield of Ohio, (late Chief of Staff to Gen. Rosecrans,) vividly and tersely gives the nature and causes of the great and rapid change in public opinion. Hear him:

"I remember to have said to a friend when I entered the army. "You hate Slavery; so do I; but I hate Disunion more. Let us drop the Slavery question and fight to sustain the Union. When the supremecy of the Government has been reestablished, we will attend to the other question."

"I started out with that position, taken in good faith, as did thousands of others of all parties. But the army soon found that, do what it would, the black panthom met it everywhere, in the camp, in the bivouac, on the battle-field, and at all times. It was a ghost that would not be laid. Slavery was both the strength and weakness of the enemy. His strength—for it tilled his fields and fed his legions; his weakness—for in the hearts of slaves dwelt dim prophecies that their deliverance from bondage would be the outcome of the war.

"The negroes came from the cotton-fields; they swam rivers; they climbed mountains; they came through jungles, in the darkness and storms of the night, to tell us that the enemy was coming here or coming there. They were our true friends in every case. There has hardly been a battle, a march, or any important event of the war, when the friend of our cause, the black man, has not been found truthful and helpful, and always devotedly loyal. The conviction forced itself on the mind of every soldier that, behind the Rebel army of soldiers, the black army of laborers were feeding and sustaining the rebellion, and there could be no victory till its main support be taken away.

"Gentlemen on the other side, you tell me that this is an Abolition war. If you please to say so, I grant it. The rapid current of events has made the army of the Republic an Abolition army. I can find in the ranks a thousand men who are in favor of sweeping away Slavery to every dozen that desire to preserve it. They have been where they havesoen its malevolence, its baleful effect upon the country and the Union, and they demand that it shall be swept away."

PROSPECTS OF RAISING THE SUNKEN IRON-CLADS.—Information has been received from Charleston in relation to raising the iron-clads Weehawken and Keokuk. The workmen had already made considerable efforts to get up the Keokuk, which were crowned with comparative success, when the weather became so unfavorable that the work had to be stopped. It is supposed that by this time the operations have recommenced. The Weehawken, it is feared, cannot be got up, too much time having elapsed before efforts were made to raise her. It is stated positively that the sinking of the Weehawken was owing, as stated orginally, to the negligence of the executive officer, in leaving one of the forward hatches open. The Weehawken is valued at $450,000, and the Keokuk at about half that sum.

VERY near one hundred and ten thousand new recruits have been formally mustered into the service since the 1st of November last, and many more thousands are known to be enlisted, although not yet mustered in. The last two weeks the enlistments have averaged 1,800 a day. Of the number formally mustered into the service, New York has furnished about 16,000, Ohio 16,000, Indiana and Illinois 12,000 each, Missouri about 7,000, and Pennsylvania only the same number.

MILWAUKEE POST OFFICE.—Three numerously signed petitions are in circulation in Milwaukee favoring the appointment of different parties for the position of Post Master in place of John Lockwood, who is just now giving more attention to abandoned plantations than he is to a Post Office that has been abandoned by him for more than two months. The petitions are severally in favor of Elisha Starr, C. K. Wells and J. B. Smith.

A WASHINGTON corespondent says: "We are enabled to state, upon the very highest authority, that Gen. Grant has within a few days formally, peremptory, and in the most decisive terms, rejected direct offers made to him lately by leading Democratic politicians to secure his nomination for the Presidency by their National Convention."

JUDGE WAYNE, on Monday dolivered the opinion of the Supreme Court, declining to interfere in the case of Clement L. Vallandigham, and refusing a writ of certiorari to the Judge Advocate General.

Letter from Captain C. W. Baker.

HEADQUARTERS 14TH U. S. COLORED TROOPS,
CHATTANOOGA, TENN., Feb. 8th, 1864.

Dear Parents:—By a glance at the heading, you will see that I have "changed my base," for a short time at least. I am here on duty as a member of a court martial; my company is still at Bridgeport.

I have visited Chattanooga once before, and at that time under very different auspices—a prisoner in rebel hands—and have for a long time been desirous of a second view of it under more pleasant circumstances. Chattanooga then and now are two very dissimilar places. Then "rebs" congregated in the streets and public places to look at the "Yanks" going through as prisoners. Now Yankees are prevalent, blue clothes are everywhere, and all the rebs to be seen are either prisoners or deserters who are repentant, and are here to take advantage of the President's proclamation of amnesty. I believe that proclamation to be a great and good thing, and that it is working incalculable damage to the rebel cause. Deserters are coming in by thousands, and many of them are giving satisfactory proof of the sincerity of their repentance by enlisting to fight under the "old flag," knowing full well what their fate will be if captured. I will give you one item by which you can judge of the rapid depletion of the rebel army. Yesterday (Sunday) three hundred and fifty deserters came in before noon! This is, I think, perfectly reliable, as I had it from good authority, and from one likely to be well informed.

The other day I visited Fort Wood, garrisoned by a company of the 1st Wisconsin Heavy Artillery, Capt. Davis. I stood upon the parapet where Gen. Grant stood during the progress of the battles of Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge, and Capt. D. pointed out to me the prominent points in the landscape, now rendered historically famous, and described the battles, of which he had a splendid view, besides the honor of being to some extent a participant therein. I can almost believe that such a sight

Four companies of our regiment are here, under the command of Lieut. Colonel Morgan. A dress parade is had every afternoon, at which time many officers and men from white regiments attend, curious to see how these men look and act in their new position as soldiers. The spectators generally seem surprised that our men do so well, and frequently compliment them on their drill and soldierly appearance. Much of the prejudice against colored soldiers has vanished, and the sentiment seems setting the other way; the men in the army are disposed to watch the movement with candid eyes and to render "honor where honor is due." All that we, the officers in this new branch of the service, ask is, that these men be given a fair trial, and we are confident as to the result—that they will win honor and credit for being brave, enduring and well disciplined.

I think that probably the regiment will be consolidated in a short time with a view to some kind of service. We at present hear hints of some very pleasant duty in store for us, concerning which I will write more fully soon.

Affectionately, your son,
CLARENCE W. BAKER.

The Enrollment Act.

After considerable filibustering in the House, the substitute offered by General Schenck, Chairman of the Military Committee for the enrollment bill, was passed by a vote of 93 to 58. The principal features of this new bill are as follows:

All exemptions, including the Vice-President, Justices of the United States Courts, Governors, &c., and excepting only those incapacitated from mental or physical disability, or who have served two years during the present war, are done away with.

Negroes, both slaves and free, are to be enrolled and drafted. In case the slaves of loyal masters be drafted or enlist, a bounty of $100 is to be paid to masters who prove their loyalty, and a commission is to be appointed in each slave State now represented in Congress, who shall award to the said masters a fair price for the slave, not to exceed $300. All slaves so drafted or enlisted to be free forever. The providing of a substitute only exempts a man from draft during the time for which such a substitute is not liable to draft.

When the substitute becomes liable to draft, the person originally drafted must serve himself or furnish another substitute. The payment of $300 commutation only exempts a man until the names then in the wheel shall become exhausted. All sects or persons who have religious scruples against and whose creed prevents them from fighting, and who can prove that their lives have been consistent with this idea, are to be allowed when drafted to go into the hospital or to assist in taking care of the freedmen. If the first draft does not give the number required, the draft is to be repeated.

Sections 19 and 20 of the present enrollment act, referring to the consolidation of regiments and dismissals of supernumerary officers, are hereby repealed. Payments of bounties to loyal masters for negroes now in the service are to be made out with the stipulation that all such slaves are to be free.

NEGRO ARGUMENT.—A gentleman owned a slave and a very intelligent fellow, who was a Universalist. On one occasion he illustrated the intellectual character of his religion in the following manner:

A certain slave had obtained a license of the Baptists to preach. He was holding forth in the presence of many of his colored brethren at one time, when he undertook to describe the process of Adam's creation:

"When God made Adam, He stooped down, scraped up a little dirt, wet it a little, warmed it in his hands, and squeezed it in de right shape, and den lean it up against de fence to dry—"

"Top dere," said our Universalist darkey; "you say dat are de fust man eber made?"

"Sartain," said the preacher.

"Den," said the other, "just tell a feller whar dat are fence come from!"

"Hush!" said the preacher, "two questions like dat would spile all de feology in de world."

GENERALS IN SERVICE.—By statements from the War Department, furnished the the Senate, it appears that there are 70 major-generals, the number allowed by law, in service and drawing pay, and 274 brigadier-generals, one less than the number provided for by law.

Proceedings of the Sorghum Convention.

At the late meeting of the sorghum growers of this State, the discussions were so extended and full of interest, both practical and scientific, that it was quite out of the question to expect local papers to publish the entire proceedings, and, therefore, on the last day of the session a publishing committee was appointed, consisting of Secretary O. S. Willey, J. W. Hoyt, M. K. Young, E. Wilcox and W. W. Field.

Subsequently a resolution was introduced by Mr. Skinner, and unanimously carried, drawing the attention of the Legislature to the importance of the subject, and was as follows:

Resolved, That we deem the discussions and statistics collected at this convention, of sufficient importance to the public, to warrent extensive distribution; and we respectfully request the Legislature to authorize the publication of the same.

This is a good move in the right direction. A vast amount of valuable information was imparted and the State should have the benefit of it. We learn from Secretary Willey, that he has the minutes nearly written out, and will soon be prepared to present them to the Legislature in connection with the above resolution; and, with the known ability of the publishing committee we shall look for a "hand book of Sorghum" that should be placed in the hands of every man who thinks of growing a rod of cane the coming season. Wisconsin seems fully arroused to the subject of growing her own sugar and syrup, and her light should not be hid under a bushel.—Madison Journal.

MILITARY APPOINTMENTS.—The following commissions have been issued by the Governor to Feb. 12, 1864:

36th Reg.—Private George E. Albee as 2d Lieut. Co. F; Private Wm. R. Newton, as 2d Lieut. Co. G; Private Geo. S. Morris, as 2d Lieut. Co. H.

14th Reg.—H. Benson, M. D., as Surgeon, vice Torrey, deceased.

The following recruiting commissions for the 36th regiment have been issued:

John W. North, of Brighton, Kenosha county.

—The spirit of the Union people in Arkansas is shown by the following extract from the Little Rock Democrat:

It is a remarkable fact that, for the arms-bearing population left in it, this State, since the advent of Gen. Steele, has furnished more volunteers for the Union army than any equal number elsewhere. Counties where Jeff Davis' conscript officers could not find a score of men, have since sent full companies to the Union army.

LYON'S KATHAIRON.

LYON'S KATHAIRON!—Kathairon is from the Greek word "Kathro," or "Kathairo," signifying to cleanse, rejuvenate, and restore. This article is what its name signifies. For preserving, restoring, and beautifying the human hair, it is the most remarkable preparation in the world. It is again owned and put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill, and attention which gave it a sale of over one million bottles per annum.

It is a most delightful Hair Dressing.

It eradicates scurf and dandruff.

It keeps the head cool and clean.

It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy.

It prevents the hair from falling off and turning grey.

It restores hair upon bald heads.

Any lady or gentleman who values a beautiful head of hair should use Lyon's Kathairon. It is known and used throughout the civilized world. Sold by all respectable dealers. DEMAS S. BARNES & CO.,

WYNKOOP'S ICELAND PECTORAL.

Diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Pulmonary Organs are ever prevalent, insidious and dangerous. The properties of a medicine to alleviate, cure, and uproot these complaints, must be expectorant, anodyne and invigorating, loosening the mucus of the throat, and imparting tone to the entire system. No discovery in medical science ever mastered this class of diseases like Dr. Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral. It is used with the most astonishing results in all cases of Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Diptheria or Putrid Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, Coughs, Colds, Nervous Irritability, &c.

The Rev. J. J. POTTER certifies—"that I have used Dr. Wynkoop's Pectoral for several years, myself and in my family, for severe pulmonary complaints, and have recommended it to many others, and have never seen its equal." Rev. J. J. POTTER, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Hundreds and thousands of important testimonials could be produced, showing its remarkable cures and that it never fails.

It is composed of pure Iceland Moss, Balm of Gilead, Peruvian Balsam, Elecampane, Comfrey, Burdock, and other invaluable expectorant and tonic ingredients. It is harmless; prompt and lasting. Invalids and sufferers cannot afford to neglect a trial. Every family should have it. It is remarkable for Croup. Full descriptions, recommendations and directions accompany each bottle.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINES.

Our LETTER A FAMILY SEWING MACHINE is fast gaining a world-wide reputation. It is beyond a doubt the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Family Sewing Machines yet offered to the public. No other Family Sewing Machine has so many useful appliances for hemming, binding, felling, tucking, gathering, gusging, braiding, embroidering, cording, and so forth. No other Family Sewing Machine has so much capacity for a great variety of work. It will sew all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Great and recent improvements make our Family Sewing Machine most reliable, and most durable, and most certain in action at all rates of speed. It makes the interlocked stitch, which is the best stitch known. Any one, even of the most ordinary capacity, can see at a glance, how to use the letter A Family Sewing Machine. Our Family Sewing Machines are finished in chaste and exquisite style.

The Folding Case of the Family Machine is a piece of cunning workmanship of the most useful kind. It protects the machine when not in use, and when about to be operated may be opened as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work. While some of the Cases made out of the choicest woods, are finished in the simplest and chastest manner possible, others are adorned and embellished in the most costly and superb manner.

It is absolutely necessary to see the Family Machine in operation, so as to judge of its great capacity and beauty.

It is fast becoming as popular for family sewing as our Manufacturing machines are for manufacturing purposes.

The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, oil, &c., of the very best quality.

HELMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE.

It is not a DYE, but restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Helmstreet's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a luxuriant beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original Hair coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentleman and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of the commercial agents, D. S. BARNES & Co., 202 Broadway, New York. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1. aug1dawcowly

BOLD ROBBERY.—The Detroit Advertiser says: "A drover from Wisconsin, who has been sojourning in this city for several days past, was knocked down and robbed of between three and four hundred dollars on Thursday night. It appears he had been carousing pretty freely during the afternoon and evening, and is supposed to have been "spotted" by the "shoe-strings," (technical name for thieves that have not the pluck to rob a sober man.) He was on his way to his hotel between twelve and one o'clock at night, and when near the corner of Grand River street and Park Place, he was pounced upon by several men, who in a very short time relieved him of the money he had upon his person."

MIX'S PATENT VENTILATOR

—FOR—

COAL OIL LAMPS!!

This article is now offered to the citizens of Janesville as

A No-Chimney Burner!

It will produce a larger light than with the chimney, and is perfectly free from smoke or smell. The light will not go out while being carried. The lamp can be lit with less trouble than a candle, and is sold at so low a price as to bring it into universal use.

Directions for Use.

Trim the lamp as for a chimney, remove the cone from the burner and put a Ventilator in its place, and it is ready for use.

It will give a brilliant light without smoke, soft and pleasant for eyes, and cannot be surpassed for portable use. The longer it is used the better it is liked.

BADGER!

1862! 1863! 1864!

GOOD! BETTER! BEST!

THE

BADGER DRILL!

HERETOFORE KNOWN AS

THE JESSUP DRILL!!

AS MADE BY

R. J. RICHARDSON,

is now vastly improved, and will hereafter be called the BADGER. The Badger possesses all the good qualities of the old drill, and many valuable improvements.

The feeding principle of the new Drill is the same as the old, but the working arrangement is quite different, and very much improved.

The workmanship is also much better than the old Drill. We will not claim that the Badger is better made than other Drills, but will say that it is made by experienced workmen, under my own supervision, and am willing that it should be compared with the best Drill made.

The frames are made of summer seasoned white ash, from the forests of Indiana. The poles and rolls are dried ash from Jefferson county. The hubs, and other castings, are from the reliable Rock River Iron Works of James Harris & Co. The various sizes of wrought iron are from numerous rolling mills of Pittsburgh.

THE POINTS ARE CAST STEEL,

from the celebrated Sheffield works of Singer, Nimick & Co. The felloes are from the Ohio State Prison, located at Columbus, Ohio. The spokes are of dry white oak, from Northern Wisconsin. The chains are from Wm. Fredericks, Germany. No pains have been spared to obtain the best material—the workmanship will show for itself.

To those who know the old Drill it is only necessary to say that the Badger is like it—only better. To those who are not acquainted with the old Drill, we would say that the Badger Drill is more accurate in its feeding than any other drill introduced.

That it is lighter draft and easier for the team than any Drill yet introduced into this market.

That it will distribute any kind of grain grown in this region. That it will

Plant Corn in Rows or in Hills!

Any distance apart, from three to six feet.

That the Badger is warranted to perform, in a good and workmanlike manner, all that is required of any Drill. If, on trial, it does not perform, it can be returned to the manufacturer, and all damage will be paid to the purchaser.

In consequence of the large advance in cost of all kinds of material, the Badger must be sold at advanced prices over last year.

Prices of the Badger for 1864:

9 Tooth Drill	$75	11 Tooth Drill	$85
10 Tooth Drill	80	12 Tooth Drill	90

Five dollars added for Grass Seeder. Four horse Drills will be made to order on short notice.
Price of 17th tooth Drill and Seeder, $120.

BOLD ROBBERY.—The Detroit Advertiser says: "A drover from Wisconsin, who has been sojourning in this city for several days past, was knocked down and robbed of between three and four hundred dollars on Thursday night. It appears he had been carousing pretty freely during the afternoon and evening, and is supposed to have been "spotted" by the "shoe-strings," (technical name for thieves that have not the pluck to rob a sober man.) He was on his way to his hotel between twelve and one o'clock at night, and when near the corner of Grand River street and Park Place, he was pounced upon by several men, who in a very short time relieved him of the money he had upon his person."

MIX'S PATENT VENTILATOR

—FOR—

COAL OIL LAMPS!!

This article is now offered to the citizens of Janesville as

A No-Chimney Burner!

It will produce a larger light than with the chimney, and is perfectly free from smoke or smell. The light will not go out while being carried. The lamp can be lit with less trouble than a candle, and is sold at so low a price as to bring it into universal use.

Directions for Use.

Trim the lamp as for a chimney, remove the cone from the burner and put a Ventilator in its place, and it is ready for use.

It will give a brilliant light without smoke, soft and pleasant for eyes, and cannot be surpassed for portable use. The longer it is used the better it is liked.

BADGER!

1862! 1863! 1864!

GOOD! BETTER! BEST!

THE

BADGER DRILL!

HERETOFORE KNOWN AS

THE JESSUP DRILL!!

AS MADE BY

R. J. RICHARDSON,

is now vastly improved, and will hereafter be called the BADGER. The Badger possesses all the good qualities of the old drill, and many valuable improvements.

The feeding principle of the new Drill is the same as the old, but the working arrangement is quite different, and very much improved.

The workmanship is also much better than the old Drill. We will not claim that the Badger is better made than other Drills, but will say that it is made by experienced workmen, under my own supervision, and am willing that it should be compared with the best Drill made.

The frames are made of summer seasoned white ash, from the forests of Indiana. The poles and rolls are dried ash from Jefferson county. The hubs, and other castings, are from the reliable Rock River Iron Works of James Harris & Co. The various sizes of wrought iron are from numerous rolling mills of Pittsburgh.

THE POINTS ARE CAST STEEL,

from the celebrated Sheffield works of Singer, Nimick & Co. The fellies are from the Ohio State Prison, located at Columbus, Ohio. The spokes are of dry white oak, from Northern Wisconsin. The chains are from Wm. Fredericks, Germany. No pains have been spared to obtain the best material—the workmanship will show for itself.

To those who know the old Drill it is only necessary to say that the Badger is like it—only better. To those who are not acquainted with the old Drill, we would say that the Badger Drill is more accurate in its feeding than any other drill introduced.

That it is lighter draft and easier for the team than any Drill yet introduced into this market.

That it will distribute any kind of grain grown in this region. That it will

Plant Corn in Rows or in Hills!

Any distance apart, from three to six feet.

That the Badger is warranted to perform, in a good and workmanlike manner, all that is required of any Drill. If, on trial, it does not perform, it can be returned to the manufacturer, and all damage will be paid to the purchaser.

In consequence of the large advance in cost of all kinds of material, the Badger must be sold at advanced prices over last year.

Prices of the Badger for 1864:

9 Tooth Drill	$75	11 Tooth Drill	$85
10 Tooth Drill	80	12 Tooth Drill	90

Five dollars added for Grass Seeder. Four horse Drills will be made to order on short notice.

Price of 17th tooth Drill and Seeder, $120.

VERBECK & WALKER'S

NEW PATENT DAMPER!!

Patented June 2, 1863.

Procure a Damper and Save Fuel!

VERBECK & WALKER

Have obtained a Patent for a Damper or Heat Regulator, by which in an ordinary draft stove at least one-third of the wood or coal CAN BE SAVED! and a better and more steady heat can be produced.

This Damper is put into the stove-pipe, at the first or second joint of pipe, and is so constructed that the draft can be wholly or partly stopped, by turning the Damper, and at the same time will allow the smoke and gas to pass freely, and the heat is retained in the stove.

By the use of these Dampers, a stove will last one-quarter longer, for the reason that the heat is thrown equally to all parts of the stove, which prevents the stove cracking; while without the Damper, the blaze strikes some parts of the stove and heats it so that it will warp and crack in a short time, and this can be saved by the use of one of these Dampers.

You can also keep fire all night, and have plenty of coals to build a fire from in the morning; this, alone, in one winter, is worth two or three times the price of a Damper.

Don't Fail to Procure one of Verbeck & Walker's Dampers,

And after using one a few days, you would not do without it for ten times the price. The price is nothing compared with the fuel it will save in one winter.

TRY ONE AND SEE!

Our Dampers are warranted never to get out of repair, and will last a life-time.

The undersigned will put in a few of them on three days' trial, on condition that if the Damper does not do what is claimed for it above, I will remove it, (and pay damages if agreed upon beforehand) If it stands a trial the price is $1,00.

I have bought the territory for Rock county, Wis, and Boone and Stephenson counties, Illinois, and will accommodate all who are willing to try a Damper, poor as well as rich.

Liberal terms are offered to competent and efficient agents in every locality. Apply to E. M. Sorley, proprietor, or at this office. This Damper can be found for sale at the hardware store of R. J. RICHARDSON. feb11daw2w E. M. SORLEY; Prop'r.

DENTAL FACTORY!

DOCTOR BURRUS

Has taken a set of rooms over McKey's Store, where he will be permanently located and practice every department of

DENTISTRY!

In all its branches. He will not only make teeth to order for his patients, but intends to keep on hand a large assortment of teeth for Dentists. He makes teeth so cheap that none need go without them. Every variety of style, from five to sixty dollars per set, and imitates nature with such precision that they cannot be distinguished from the natural teeth, with one exception, that is, they never ache! He puts no nerves in them!

Teeth Extracted Without Pain.

Dr. Burrus has also just procured a quantity of pure, Hydric Aether, which has been pronounced by all the Dental and Medical Journals, as well as by the ablest of the medical profession, to be the best and safest of the anesthetic agents yet known for the purpose of extracting teeth. He has a new mode of administering this agent, a new apparatus for the express purpose. It preferable to and less dangerous, though analogous to the

STOCK AND GRAIN FARM FOR SALE—I offer for sale my farm situate in section 22, 23 and 27, laying between four and five miles south of Janesville on the River road, east side.

Said farm contains about 324 acres of land, about 200 of which are fine, level prairie, the balance comprising oak openings and heavy timber. The farm is in good state of cultivation. A large portion of the land is newly broken. Upwards of 80 acres are now sown to Rye and Winter Wheat, and land is ploughed ready for Spring crops. There are about 50 acres seeded down to Timothy and Clover.

The house is roomy, and the farm buildings all that are required to carry on a large farm conveniently.

With the advantages of wood, water and prairie combined, few farms possess similar advantages. The roads are good, with no interruption to travel either in the deepest snow or muddiest times of the year. Many who are in the habit of driving on the River road between Janesville and Beloit will be familiar with the beauty of the location.

For terms and other particulars apply to me on the premises. 25w4w JOHN GEORGE TODD, Rock.

GREAT BOUNTIES PAID TO

U. S. VOLUNTEERS.

The following Bounties and Premiums will be paid to recruits enlisting for three years service:

Every Recruit who is a Veteran Volunteer, one month's pay in advance, and a Bounty and Premium in enstalments amounting to $402.

To all other Recruits not Veterans, one month's pay in advance, and a Bounty and Premium in Instalments amounting to $302.

All the Bounty and Premium paid, even if the war closes immediately after enlistment.

Protection to Widows and Orphans.

All the Bounty paid to Legal Heirs, if the soldier dies in the service

You can serve in any Regiment you choose now in the field

The following PREMIUMS will be paid to any person other than an officer, who shall bring in an accepted Veteran Recruit.

A Premium of	$25 00
For an accepted Recruit (not a veteran)	15 00
For a Deserter,	30 00

In offering these liberal terms, Bounties and Premiums, it is the desire of the Government to give the people an opportunity of doing away with the necessity for the draft, to come off January 5th, 1863, under the President's last call of October 17th, for 300,000 men. So that all sub-districts who furnish their quota under this last call will not be liable to the draft of January 5th, 1864, and will be credited for whatever number they furnish.

It should be understood that all enlistments whether under the above conditions, or in other organizations, will be credited in this last call.

For further information, come to the office of the Provost Marshal, 2d District.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

FOUR DIFFERENT STITCHES,

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

VERBECK & WALKER'S

NEW PATENT DAMPER!!

Patented June 2, 1863.

Procure a Damper and Save Fuel!

VERBECK & WALKER

Have obtained a Patent for a Damper or Heat Regulator, by which in an ordinary draft stove at least one-third of the wood or coal CAN BE SAVED! and a better and more steady heat can be produced.

This Damper is put into the stove-pipe, at the first or second joint of pipe, and is so constructed that the draft can be wholly or partly stopped, by turning the Damper, and at the same time will allow the smoke and gas to pass freely, and the heat is retained in the stove.

By the use of these Dampers, a stove will last one-quarter longer, for the reason that the heat is thrown equally to all parts of the stove, which prevents the stove cracking; while without the Damper, the blaze strikes some parts of the stove and heats it so that it will warp and crack in a short time, and this can be saved by the use of one of these Dampers.

You can also keep fire all night, and have plenty of coals to build a fire from in the morning; this, alone, in one winter, is worth two or three times the price of a Damper.

Don't Fail to Procure one of Verbeck & Walker's Dampers,

And after using one a few days, you would not do without it for ten times the price. The price is nothing compared with the fuel it will save in one winter.

TRY ONE AND SEE!

Our Dampers are warranted never to get out of repair, and will last a life-time.

The undersigned will put in a few of them on three days' trial, on condition that if the Damper does not do what is claimed for it above, I will remove it, (and pay damages if agreed upon beforehand.) If it stands a trial the price is $1.00.

I have bought the territory for Rock county, Wis., and Boone and Stephenson counties, Illinois, and will accommodate all who are willing to try a Damper, poor as well as rich.

Liberal terms are offered to competent and efficient agents in every locality. Apply to E. M. Sorley, proprietor, or at this office. This Damper can be found for sale at the hardware store of R. J. RICHARDSON.

DENTAL FACTORY!

DOCTOR BURRUS

Has taken a set of rooms over McKey's Store, where he will be permanently located and practice every department of

DENTISTRY!

In all its branches. He will not only make teeth to order for his patients, but intends to keep on hand a large assortment of teeth for Dentists. He makes teeth so cheap that none need go without them. Every variety of style, from five to sixty dollars per set, and imitates nature with such precision that they cannot be distinguished from the natural teeth, with one exception, that is, they never ache! He puts no nerves in them!

Teeth Extracted Without Pain.

Dr. Burrus has also just procured a quantity of pure, Hydric Æther, which has been pronounced by all the Dental and Medical Journals, as well as by the ablest of the medical profession, to be the best and safest of all the anesthetic agents yet known for the purpose of extracting teeth. He has a new mode of administering his agent, a new apparatus for the express purpose. It is preferable to and less dangerous, though analagous to the

Nitrous Oxide Gas, (Laughing Gas.)

This gas has been before the public over half a century, and proved to be dangerous and uncertain in its on.

Dr. Tefft's Local Anasthecia.

Dr. Burrus uses this agent for all who desire it. A small piece of cotton wet with this agent put around the neck of the tooth soon remove all sensibility in the parts. It is not dangerous under any circumstances.

Superior and Beautiful Pictures FROM LIFE!

It is not intended, or PRETENDED, that Pictures can be had CHEAPER at the Parlors than elsewhere, and we shall not undertake to compete with others in Janesville, on low prices, but it is promised that the prices for pictures at the Parlors shall be as low as the same kind of work can be done for anywhere, and CHEAPER than many first class Galleries adopt. It shall be the constant aim of the proprietor of the "Parlor" to keep pace with all the improvements and discoveries made by the most advanced and scientific artists in the country. Those who are longing for

BEAUTIFUL PICTURES

of their children, but who have failed through the impatience of the artist or other difficulties, are invited to call, when we promise that to all the means of the art known, to get them, shall be added patience and forbearance.

Old Daguerreotypes and Ambrotypes

STOCK AND GRAIN FARM FOR SALE.—I offer for sale my farm situate in section 22, 23 and 27, laying between four and five miles south of Janesville on the River road, east side.

Said farm contains about 324 acres of land, about 200 of which are fine, level prairie, the balance comprising oak openings and heavy timber. The farm is in good state of cultivation. A large portion of the land is newly broken. Upwards of 80 acres are now sown to Rye and Winter Wheat, and land is ploughed ready for Spring crops. There are about 50 acres seeded down to Timothy and Clover.

The house is roomy, and the farm buildings all that are required to carry on a large farm conveniently.

With the advantages of wood, water and prairie combined, few farms possess similar advantages. The roads are good, with no interruption to travel either in the deepest snow or muddiest times of the year. Many who are in the habit of driving on the River road between Janesville and Beloit will be familiar with the beauty of the location.

For terms and other particulars apply to me on the premises. 25w4w JOHN GEORGE TODD, Rock.

GREAT BOUNTIES PAID TO

U. S. VOLUNTEERS.

The following Bounties and Premiums will be paid to recruits enlisting for three years service:

Every Recruit who is a Veteran Volunteer, one month's pay in advance, and a Bounty and Premium in enstalments amounting to $402.

To all other Recruits not Veterans, one month's pay in advance, and a Bounty and Premium in instalments amounting to $302.

All the Bounty and Premium paid, even if the war closes immediately after enlistment.

Protection to Widows and Orphans.

All the Bounty paid to Legal Heirs, if the soldier dies in the service.

You can serve in any Regiment you choose now in the field.

The following PREMIUMS will be paid to any person other than an officer, who shall bring in an accepted Veteran Recruit.

A Premium of $25 00
For an accepted Recruit (not a veteran) 15 00
For a Deserter, 30 00

In offering these liberal terms, Bounties and Premiums, it is the desire of the Government to give the people an opportunity of doing away with the necessity for the draft, to come off January 5th, 1863, under the President's last call of October 17th, for 300,000 men. So that all sub-districts who furnish their quota under this last call will not be liable to the draft of January 5th, 1864, and will be credited for whatever number they furnish.

It should be understood that all enlistments whether under the above conditions, or in other organizations, will be credited in this last call.

For further information, come to the office of the Provost Marshal, 2d District.

COUGH BALSAM

Over Five Thousand Bottles have been sold in its native town, and not a single instance of its failure is known. We have, in our possession, any quantity of certificates, some of them from eminent Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and given it the pre-eminence over any other compound.

It does not Dry up a Cough, but loosens it, so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely. Two or three doses will invariably cure Tickling in the Throat. A half bottle has often COMPLETELY CURED the most and yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.

STUBBORN COUGH,

IN CASES OF CROUP,

we will guarantee a cure if taken in season. No family should be without it. It is within the reach of all the price being and if an investment and thorough trial does not "back up" the above statement, the money will be refunded. We say this, knowing its merits, and feel confident that one trial will secure for it a home in every household.

Only Twenty-Five Cen

DO NOT WASTE AWAY WITH COUGHING,

when so small an investment will cure you. It may be had of any respectable druggist in town, who will furnish you with a circular of genuine certificates of cures it has made. C. G. CLARK & CO., Wholesale Druggists, New Haven, Conn., Proprietors.
